enrich a reader's life Blindness and Autobiography Fedwa Malti-Douglas, 2014-07-14 The three volume life story of the Egyptian intellectual Tahar Husayn 1889-1973 is a landmark in modern autobiography in Arabic letters and in the literature of blindness. This justly celebrated text however has never been subjected to the sustained literary analysis here presented by Fedwa Malti Douglas. Born into a modest family and blinded in childhood, Husayn nevertheless conquered first his own and then a European educational system to become one of his country's leading modernizers. Professor Malti Douglas shows that the personal, social and literary reality of the hero's blindness gives the autobiography its unity and force. Blindness and Autobiography is not only a rich explication of al Ayyam but a pioneering study of the interaction between a severe physical handicap and the autobiographical process. It adds a new perspective to the contemporary discussion of the cultural uses of the body. The first part of the book explores blindness and society from the evolving conflict between personal and social conceptions of the handicap to the way blindness redefines the more familiar issues of traditional versus modern East versus West. The second section examines the relationship of blindness to the autobiography's écriture, rhetoric and narration. Originally published in 1988, The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print-on-demand technology to again make available previously out-of-print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press. These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions. The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905.

Writing in the Vicinity of Art Tracey Warr, 2023-09-29 Tracey Warr's art texts have been developed as an embedded writer writing with rather than about artists. Throughout her various modes of art writing, she argues against binaries and focuses on the stream of consciousness, the more-than-human and remoteness. Warr's writing engages with the making processes of contemporary artists including Marina Abramovic, Ackroyd and Harvey, Tine Bech Brock and Black Bruce, Gilchrist, Marcus Coates, Elpidia Hadzi Vasileva, London Fieldworks, Hayley Newman, Optik, Alan Smith, Emily Speed, Christian Thompson, James Turrell, Urbanas Studio and more.

The Dilemma of Difference Stephen C. Ainsley, Gaylene Becker, Lerita M. Coleman, 2013-11-11 The topic of stigma came to the attention of modern-day behavioral science in 1963 through Erving Goffman's book with the engaging title Stigma: Notes on the Management of Spoiled Identity. Following its publication, scholars in such fields as anthropology, clinical psychology, social psychology, sociology and history began to study the important role of stigma in human interaction Beginning in the early 1960s and continuing to the present day a body of research literature has emerged to extend elaborate and qualify Goffman s original ideas The essays pre sented in this volume are the outgrowth of these developments and represent an attempt to add impetus to theory and research in this area Much of the stigma research that has been conducted since 1963 has sought to test one or another of Goffman s notions about the effects of stigma on social interactions and the self Social and clinical psychologists have tried to experimentally create a number of the effects that Goffman asserted stigmas have on ordinary social interactions and sociologists have looked for eVidence of the same in survey and observational studies of stig matized people in situations of everyday life By 1980 a consider able body of empirical evidence had been amassed about social stigmas and the devastating effects they can have on social interactions
