Sociology ,1979      Repairing the Broken Surface of Talk Gail Jefferson, 2017-10-20 This collection of studies by Gail Jefferson one of the co founders of the field of Conversation Analysis represents a distinctive and sustained investigation of speakers correcting errors in their own and one another s speech Combining rigorous technical analysis methodological innovation and acute observation Jefferson explores the subterranean world of interaction      Case Studies in Communication Disorders Louise Cummings, 2016-10-06 This is a collection of 48 highly useful case studies of children and adults with communication disorders      Small Talk Justine Coupland, 2003 This special issue of the Research on Language and Social Interaction series addresses the social functions of small talk      Conversational Repair and Human Understanding Makoto Hayashi, Geoffrey Raymond, Jack Sidnell, 2018-05-10 Humans are imperfect and problems of speaking hearing and understanding are pervasive in ordinary interaction This book examines the way we repair and correct such problems as they arise in conversation and other forms of human interaction The first book length study of this topic it brings together a team of scholars from the fields of anthropology communication linguistics and sociology to explore how speakers address problems in their own talk and that of others and how the practices of repair are interwoven with non verbal aspects of communication such as gaze and gesture across a variety of languages Specific chapters highlight intersections between repair and epistemics repair and turn construction and repair and action formation Aimed at researchers and students in sociolinguistics speech communication conversation analysis and the broader human and social sciences to which they contribute anthropology linguistics psychology and sociology this book provides a state of the art review of conversational repair while charting new directions for future study

Social Communication Development and Disorders Deborah A. Hwa-Froelich, 2014 This new standout volume is the first to describe developmental areas associated with social competence and social communication as well as provide evidence based information on effective assessment and intervention for children who have problems with social communication and social interactions Expertly crafted the volume offers both theory and practice within one comprehensive yet manageable resource for busy professionals The first section covers social communication theory and associated developmental domains Case studies are provided to exemplify how different variables may affect social communication development The second section covers evidence based practices for social communication disorders and includes case studies incidence and prevalence estimates the current DSM V definition of the disorder referral guidelines recommended practices of assessment and intervention and a list of clinical resources Social Communication Development and Disorders is an ideal text for a range of courses in Communication Sciences and Disorders or Speech Language Pathology and a must have reference for professionals working with children with social competence or social communication problems including speech language pathologists SLPs regular and special educators psychologists and support personnel such as social workers counselors and occupational therapists

What's Going on Here? Allen D. Grimshaw, Peter J. Burke, Aaron V. Cicourel, 1994 'Miscommunication' and Problematic Talk Nikolas Coupland, Howard Giles, John M. Wiemann, 1991 Language use and communication are pervasively and even intrinsically flawed partial and problematic this is the contention of this volume which explores failures in interpersonal communication Rather than approaching communication in terms of competence effectiveness efficiency and satisfaction the contributors reassess key social contexts in terms of miscommunication rather than communication failure rather than success They provide an integrative overview of research in defined social contexts highlighting particular social groups social situations and communicative modes The elderly children non native speakers medical personnel and the disabled are among those discussed
