I & II Timothy and Titus (2002) Raymond F. Collins,2013-10-26 The Pastoral Epistles present difficult questions for the modern interpreter including such matters as their authorship literary characteristics and social orientations Raymond Collins carefully leads the reader through the texts of these three documents attending to the flow of the Pastor s thought and locating it within the Jewish and Hellenistic culture of his day The New Testament Library offers authoritative commentary on every book and major aspect of the New Testament as well as classic volumes of scholarship The commentaries in this series provide fresh translations based on the best available ancient manuscripts offer critical portrayals of the historical world in which the books were created pay careful attention to their literary design and present a theologically perceptive exposition of the text

The Anderson Revisionist Bible: The Books of Moses Stephen Warde Anderson,2017-04-22 The Books of Moses is the first of five volumes that will comprise The Anderson Revisionist Bible A work in progress it is based upon existing translations Rendered into contemporary language and purged of antiquated words outmoded expressions and religious jargon it aspires to accurately convey the meaning of the original biblical texts while presenting a highly readable and understandable narrative Targeted to a general popular audience especially skeptics and the non religious it deals with the Bible the most important book ever written not as hallowed Scripture but as an ancient text meriting objective analysis both as an historical account and as an articulation of religious creed It is richly annotated with informative material critical assessment and speculative commentary it essays to answer the questions the average reader would ask and address the issues the layman might wonder about Psychoeducational Groups , Talk at the Brink David R. Gibson,2012-07-29 In October 1962 the fate of the world hung on the American response to the discovery of Soviet nuclear missile sites in Cuba That response was informed by hours of discussions between John F Kennedy and his top advisers What those advisers did not know was that President Kennedy was secretly taping their talks providing future scholars with a rare inside look at high level political deliberation in a moment of crisis Talk at the Brink is the first book to examine these historic audio recordings from a sociological perspective It reveals how conversational practices and dynamics shaped Kennedy s perception of the options available to him thereby influencing his decisions and ultimately the outcome of the crisis David Gibson looks not just at the positions taken by Kennedy and his advisers but how those positions were articulated challenged revised and sometimes ignored He argues that Kennedy s decisions arose from the intersection of distant events unfolding in Cuba Moscow and the high seas with the immediate conversational minutia of turn taking storytelling argument and justification In particular Gibson shows how Kennedy s group told and retold particular stories again and again sometimes settling upon a course of action only after the most frightening consequences were omitted or actively suppressed Talk at the Brink presents an image of Kennedy s response to the Cuban missile crisis that is sharply at odds with previous scholarship and has important implications for our understanding of decision making deliberation social interaction and historical contingency PEERS® for Young Adults Elizabeth Laugeson,2017-01-12 Session 1 Trading information and starting conversations session 2 Trading information and maintaining conversations session 3 Finding a source of friends session 4 Electronic communication session 5 Appropriate use of humor session 6 Entering group conversations session 7 Exiting conversations session 8 Get togethers session 9 Dating etiquette letting someone know you like them session 10 Dating etiquette asking someone on a date session 11 Dating etiquette going on dates session 12 Dating etiquette dating do s and don ts session 13 Handling disagreements session 14 Handling direct bullying session 15 Handling indirect bullying session 16 Moving forward and graduation Television Talk Bernard M.
