River Mist and Other Stories Doppo Kunikida, 2024-10-26 River Mist and Other Stories is a collection of short fiction by Kunikida Doppo a prominent writer of Japan's Meiji era. The anthology reflects Doppo's blend of romanticism and realism exploring themes like personal failure nostalgia nature and inner struggle. The title story River Mist Kawagiri follows Ueda Toyokichi a man who leaves his hometown with high hopes but returns after 20 years defeated by life's hardships. Doppo's vivid descriptions of the mist covered riverbanks capture both the beauty of nature and the melancholy of unfulfilled dreams. Through this and other stories Doppo expresses his fascination with human vulnerability often influenced by English romantic poets like Wordsworth. The collection showcases Doppo's talent for introspective storytelling with moments of subtle humor tragic endings and philosophical reflection revealing the author's own personal trials and emotional evolution.

Amazon Indigenous Literature of Oceania Nicholas J. Goetzfridt, 1995-02-28 Oceania has a rich and growing literary tradition. The imaginative literature that emerged in the 1960s often reflected the forms and structures of European literature though the ideas expressed were typically anticolonial. After three decades the literature of Oceania has become much more complex in terms of style as well as content and authors write in a multiplicity of styles and voices. While the written literature of Oceania is continuously gaining more critical attention questions about the imposition of European literary standards and values as a further extension of colonialism in the Pacific have become a central issue. This book is a detailed survey of the expanding amount of critical and interpretive material written about the imaginative literature of authors from Oceania. It focuses on commentary and scholarship concerned with the poetry fiction and drama written in English by indigenous peoples of the Pacific Islands New Zealand and Australia. The criticisms have appeared in academic books and journals since the mid 1960s. They have developed to the point at which critical issues related to decolonization and the expression of ideas without having to first satisfy foreign expectations often determine the direction of such
