Tampa Review 21:

Nationhood, Executive Power and the Australian Constitution Peta Stephenson, 2022-09-08 The first comprehensive study of the nature and scope of the nationhood power this book brings a fresh perspective to the scholarship on the powers of the executive branch in Australia The question of when the Federal Executive Government can act without the authorisation of the Parliament is contested and highly topical in Australia In recent judicial decisions Australian courts have suggested that statutory authorisation may not be required where the Federal Executive Government is exercising the nationhood power that is the implied executive power derived from the character and status of the Commonwealth as the national government The Federal Executive Government has relied on this power to implement controversial spending programs respond to national emergencies and exclude non citizens from Australia Together the chapters in this book analyse and evaluate judicial observations about the operation of the nationhood power in these different contexts and the limits which apply to it While the focus of this book is on the nationhood power it also addresses broader issues concerning the relationship between the legislative and executive branches in parliamentary systems of government This book makes an important contribution to the literature on executive power and will appeal to constitutional lawyers scholars and practitioners and those who are involved in the administration of government

#21 Pushcart Prize Bill Henderson, 1996-10 The most honored literary series in America begins its third decade of continuous publication Reviewing last year's edition of The Pushcart Prize Booklist commented If you buy one best of anthology this year make it the Pushcart Prize The Chicago Tribune recently raved When it comes to contemporary American literature the small press is where the action is of all anthologies Pushcart's is the most rewarding to read straight through In Pushcart Prize XXI over sixty selections of short stories essays and poetry have been picked from thousands of nominations by Pushcart Press staff contributing editors and hundreds of small presses This year Patricia Strachan and William Matthews served as poetry editors The result is an introduction to a literary world that few readers have access to where much of today's important new writing is published far from the commercial influence of the conglomerates The Pushcart Prize has been chosen for two Book of the Month Club QPBC selections named many times as an outstanding book of the year by the New York Times Book Review and honored with Publishers Weekly's Carey Thomas Award
