Tanners Of Taiwan Life Strategies Of National Culture:

Tanners of Taiwan Scott Simon, 2018-05-04 Tanners of Taiwan is an ethnography of identity construction set in the leather tanning communities of Southern Taiwan Through life history analysis and ethnographic observation Simon examines what it means to be Chinese or alternatively Taiwanese in contemporary Taiwan Under forty years of martial law from 1947 to 1987 the Chinese Nationalist Party tried to create a Chinese identity in Taiwan through ideological campaigns that reached deep into families schools and workplaces They justified their rule through a development narrative that Chinese culture and good policy contributed to the prosperity of the Taiwan miracle These ideological claims and cultural identities however have never been fully accepted in Southern Taiwan This ethnography is the first to document from the ground level how those claims have been contested and how a new Taiwanese identity has been constructed since democratization Tanners of Taiwan provides more than a description of workplaces in Taiwan Looking at the different perspectives of tanners women managers and workers it demonstrates how cultural and other identities are constructed through dynamics of power and political economy A small affordable case studies book to be assigned with a core textbook in introductory anthropology courses Shows how the US reader is connected to the seemingly distant lives of Taiwanese tanners Simon follows hides from the US to tanneries in Taiwan then elsewhere to be made into shoes and other leather goods and then back to the consumer in the US demonstrating concretely the notion of global interconnectedness Anchored in personal observation and ethnographic detail the book makes very tangible such otherwise abstract notions as national identity and global integration

Tanners of Taiwan Scott Simon, 2005-03-04 An ethnography of the leather tanning industry in Southern Taiwan Tanners of Taiwan examines what it means to be Chinese Re-writing Culture in Taiwan Fang-Long Shih, Stuart Thompson, Paul Tremlett, 2008-11-05 Examining issues such as trauma memory history tradition modernity post modernity and with chapters on nationalism anthropology cultural studies media studies religion and museum studies this book offers a comprehensive and critical analysis of contemporary Taiwan Becoming Taiwan Ann Heylen, Scott Sommers, 2010 One of the most important aspects of democracy has been the transition from colonialism In Taiwan this discussion is typically framed in political discourse that focuses on theoretical issues Becoming Taiwan departs from this well traveled route to describe the cultural historical and social origins of Taiwan s thriving democracy Contributors were specifically chosen to represent both Taiwanese and non Taiwanese researchers as well as a diverse range of academic fields from Literature and Linguistics to History Archeology Sinology and Sociology The result represents a mixture of well known scholars and young researchers from outside the English speaking world The volume addresses three main issues in Taiwan Studies and attempts answers based in the historical record How Chinese is Taiwan Organizing a Taiwanese Society and Speaking about Taiwan Individual chapters are grouped around these three themes illustrating the internal dynamics that transformed Taiwan into its current manifestation as a thriving multiethnic democracy Our approach addresses these themes pointing out how Taiwan Studies provides a multidisciplinary answer to problems of the transformation from colonialism to democracy Truly Human Scott E. Simon, 2023-04-28 The Sediq and Truku Indigenous peoples on the mountainous island of Formosa today called Taiwan say that their ancestors emerged in the beginning of time from Pusu Qhuni a tree covered boulder in the highlands Living in the mountain forests they observed the sacred law of Gaya seeking equilibrium with other humans the spirits animals and plants They developed a politics in which each community preserved its autonomy and sharing was valued more highly than personal accumulation of goods or power These lifeworlds were shattered by colonialism capitalist development and cultural imperialism in the twentieth century Based on two decades of ethnographic field research Truly Human portrays these peoples lifeworlds teachings political struggles for recognition and relations with non human animals Taking seriously their ontological claims that Gaya offers moral guidance to all humans Scott E Simon reflects on what this particular form of Indigenous resurgence reveals about human rights sovereignty and the good of all kind Truly Human contributes to a decolonizing anthropology at a time when all humans need Indigenous land based teachings more than ever Human Rights and the Third World Subrata Sankar Bagchi, Arnab Das, 2012-12-06 Human Rights and the Third World Issues and Discourses deals with the controversial questions on the universalistic notions of human rights It finds Third World perspectives on human rights and seeks to open up a discursive space in the human rights discourse to address unresolved questions citing issues and problems from different countries in the Third World 1 Whether alternative perspectives should be taken as the standard for human rights in the Third World countries 2 Should there be a universalistic notion of rights for Homo sapiens or are we talking about two diametrically opposite trends and standards of human rights for the same species 3 How far these Third World perspectives of human rights can ensure the protection of the minorities and the vulnerable sections of population particularly the women and children within the Third World 4 Can these alternative perspectives help in fighting the Third World problems like poverty hunger corruption despotism social exclusion like the caste system in India communalism and the like 5 Can there be reconciliation between the Third World perspectives and the Western perspective of human rights The Museum in Asia Yunci Cai, 2025-02-04 The Museum in Asia advances an understanding of the flourishing museum landscape in the region by offering a variety of conceptual tools and frameworks through which museum development can be analysed and understood Informed by the key theoretical tenets of critical museology and heritage studies this volume seeks to deconstruct the idea of museology and the museum phenomenon in East South and Southeast Asia to identify common themes and trends unique to Asia Drawing on case studies from ten different countries in Asia including China and India it proffers a set of analytical tools to think through how we can understand and conceptualise the study of museums and museology in Asia Contributions to this edited volume are drawn from both Asian and Western academic contexts thus offering both inside and outside perspectives on the museum phenomenon in Asia The Museum in Asia is the first academic book to explore the museum phenomenon in Asia from theoretical perspectives informed by critical museology and heritage studies making it an essential text for the teaching of courses relating to museum studies cultural heritage studies or Asian studies Academics students and professionals who are interested in learning more about the theory behind the museum phenomenon in Asia will find this book to be a useful resource Taiwan's Social Movements under Ma Ying-jeou Dafydd Fell, 2017-02-17 In the spring of 2014 the Sunflower Movement's three week occupation of the Legislative Yuan brought Taiwan back to international media attention It was the culmination of a series of social movements that had been growing in strength since 2008 and have become even more salient since the spring of 2014 Social movements in Taiwan have emerged as a powerful new actor that needs to be understood alongside those players that have dominated the literature such as political parties local factions Taishang China and the United States This book offers readers an introduction to the development of these social movements in Taiwan by examining a number of important movement case studies that focus on the post 2008 period The return of the Kuomintang KMT to power radically changed the political environment for Taiwan's civil society and so the book considers how social activists responded to this new political opportunity structure The case chapters are based on extensive fieldwork and are written by authors from a variety of disciplinary backgrounds and methodological approaches in some cases authors combine being both academics and activists themselves Together the chapters focus on a number of core issues providing the book with four key aims Firstly it investigates the roots of the movements and considers how to best explain their emergence Secondly it examines the development trajectories of these movements Thirdly it looks at the best way to explain their impact and development patterns and finally it assesses their overall impact questioning whether they can be regarded as successes or failures Covering a unique range of social movement cases the book will be of interest to students and researchers interested in Taiwanese society and politics as well as social movements and civil society Japanese Taiwan Andrew D. Morris, 2015-07-30 Colonial agents worked for fifty years to make a Japanese Taiwan using technology culture statistics trade and modern ideologies to remake their new territory according to evolving ideas of Japanese empire Since the end of the Pacific War this project has been remembered imagined nostalgized erased commodified manipulated idealized and condemned by different sectors of Taiwan's population The volume covers a range of topics including colonial era photography exploration postwar deportation sport film media economic planning contemporary Japanese influences on Taiwanese popular culture and recent nostalgia for and misunderstandings about the colonial era Japanese Taiwan provides an interdisciplinary perspective on these related processes of colonization and decolonization explaining how the memories scars and traumas of the colonial era have been utilized during the postwar period It provides a unique critique of the Japaneseness of the erstwhile Chinese Taiwan thus bringing new scholarship to bear on problems in contemporary East Asian politics Regional Minorities and Development in Asia Huhua Cao, Elizabeth Morrell, 2009-09-10 Asia has undergone strong economic growth since the Second World War However it also experiences growing economic and regional disparities brought about by this unprecedented development This economic growth cannot be considered sustainable without taking into consideration the social development of minority populations as well as the fundamentals of minority rights The chapters in this book work from the premise that an environment that favours the emergence of various conditions necessary for the development of minority populations will contribute towards further economic development and prosperity as well as the social cohesion of the entire country Bringing together perspectives from Economics Development and Area Studies Geography Anthropology and Sociology the contributors provide local narratives that shed light on some of the different needs situations and methods of problem solving This diverse approach gives a nuanced perspective on social economic and political inequality and the ways in which people are constructing varied responses to the challenges of modernization Through the comparison of the characteristics and realities of minority region development among countries in East and Southeast Asia this book provides a better understanding of the development related challenges faced by minority regions in the current context of modernization and globalization

The Greenwood Encyclopedia of Children's Issues Worldwide
Irving Epstein, 2007-12-30 From the skyrocketing AIDS rate in Haiti to the oppressive pollution in industrial China from the violent street culture of Nigeria to the crippling poverty in Nicaragua from child trafficking in Thailand to child marriages in India this jam packed six volume set explores all these issues and more in an unprecedented look at the world's children at the dawn of the 21st century In recent years while many countries have enjoyed a higher standard of living and improved working conditions others have been torn apart by war and incapacitated by famine and are struggling to improve life for their children and their future Recent concern over the world's children has resulted in a global attempt to define what constitutes an acceptable childhood New attention has been paid not only to healthcare and secondary education but also to the right to play and increased access to technology The UN's codification of children's rights has done much to expand our understanding of what is needed for healthy growth and development of children and youth Organized by region The Greenwood Encyclopedia of Children's Issues Worldwide is the first globally focused set of this magnitude offering extensive up to date coverage of these critical issues Original chapters accessibly synthesize current data on key topics including education play and recreation child labor family health laws and legal status religious life abuse and neglect and growing up in the 21st century

Critical Craft Clare M. Wilkinson-Weber, Alicia Ory DeNicola, 2020-05-26 From Oaxacan wood carvings to dessert kitchens in provincial France Critical Craft presents thirteen ethnographies which examine what defines and makes craft in a wide variety of practices from around the world Challenging the conventional understanding of craft as a survival a revival or something that resists capitalism the book turns instead to the designers DIY enthusiasts traditional artisans and technical programmers who consider their labor to be craft in order to comprehend how they make sense of it The authors ethnographic studies focus on the individuals and communities who claim a practice as their own bypassing the question of craft survival to ask how and why activities termed craft are mobilized and reproduced Moving beyond regional studies of heritage artisanship the authors suggest that ideas of craft are by definition part of a larger cosmopolitan dialogue of power and identity By paying careful attention to these sometimes conflicting voices this collection shows that there is great flexibility in terms of which activities are labelled craft In fact there are many related ideas of craft and these shape distinct engagements with materials people and the economy Case studies from countries including Mexico Nigeria India Taiwan the Philippines and France draw together evidence based on linguistics microsociology and participant observation to explore the shifting terrain on which those engaged in craft are operating What emerges is a fascinating picture which shows how claims about craft are an integral part of contemporary global change

Mothering in East Asian Communities; Politics and Practices Patti Duncan, 2014-09-01 In Mothering in East Asian Communities Duncan and Wong seamlessly rupture a homogenous identity category that of the tiger mom The editors invoke the works of diverse contributors who critically challenge essentialized identity categories and racialized and sexualized experiences of women of color within the institution of motherhood and practices of mothering Here the edited volume grapples with globalization transnationalism and capitalism with an East Asian ethno racial cultural context Duncan and Wong offer a personal and political analysis of motherhood that is socially and cu

Confronting Discrimination and Inequality in China Errol P. Mendes, Sakunthala Srighanthan, 2009-04-18 Confronting Discrimination and Inequality in China focuses on the most challenging areas of discrimination and inequality in China including discrimination faced by HIV AIDS afflicted individuals rural populations migrant workers women people with disabilities and ethnic minorities The Canadian contributors offer rich regional national and international perspectives on how constitutions laws policies and practices both in Canada and in other parts of the world battle discrimination and the conflicts that arise from these The Chinese contributors include some of the most independent minded scholars and practitioners in China Their assessments of the challenges facing China in the areas of discrimination and inequality not only attest to their personal courage and intellectual freedom but also add an important perspective on this superpower Published in English

The Iraqw of Tanzania Katherine A. Snyder, 2018-10-08 In The Iraqw of Tanzania Negotiating Rural Development author Katherine Snyder focuses on how the Iraqw perceive respond to and affect development in Tanzania Snyder explores how the ideology of development affects people s actions from what crops to plant to what to wear and do at their weddings and also considers how issues of development play out between elders and juniors men and women and wealthy and poor She shows the creativity of local actors in adapting to new ideological shifts and using the rhetoric of development to pursue their own goals Presenting the author s own fieldwork avoiding jargon and making extensive use of vignettes stories of peoples lives and incidents The Iraqw of Tanzania illustrates its themes in a manner useful and fascinating to students

Black Skins, French Voices David Beriss, 2018-04-27 This book is about the choices black French citizens make when they move from Martinique and Guadeloupe to Paris and discover that they are not fully French It shows how ethnic activists in the Afro Caribbean diaspora organize to demand what has never been available to them in France From Mukogodo to Maasai Lee Cronk, 2018-04-27 This book focuses on the strategic manipulation of ethnic identity by the Mukogodo of Kenya. It is about how Mukogodo people changed their way of life to a radically different one that is their change as Maasai people giving them a new way of living, a new language and a new set of beliefs.

Namoluk Beyond The Reef Mac Marshall, 2018-02-28 This case study examines emigrants from Namoluk Atoll in the Eastern Caroline Islands of Micronesia in the Western Pacific. Most members of the Namoluk Community (bbon Namoluk) do not currently live there; some 60 percent of them have moved to Chuuk, Guam, Hawaii, or the mainland United States such as Eureka, California. The question is how and why those expatriates continue to think of themselves as bbon Namoluk and behave accordingly despite being a far-flung network of people with inevitable erosions of shared language and culture.

Muslim Youth Colette Harris, 2018-04-27 This book presents a compelling ethnography of the changes Tajikistan faces at the turn of the twenty-first century as seen through the eyes of its youth. It discusses the ethnographic gaze on the tremendous cultural changes being played out in post-Soviet Tajikistan. The Margins of Becoming Carsten Storm, Mark Harrison, 2007 This volume offers work on an array of cultural moments which express the liminal nature of Taiwan's cultural life on the fault lines of Asia and the West. The chapters offer a snapshot of the limits of what counts as Taiwan and what is becoming Taiwan. Studies p. 18
