Rosen,2023-02-07 Historically there were more male therapists and more female patients Just as society has changed so has therapy Jung s psychology includes the feminine aspects of a man and the masculine parts of a woman Of course today it is a complete psyche or an inner marriage In the background would be a mandala which also represents wholeness and individuation Synchronicity is an acausal but meaningful relationship which therapy honors Jung s psychology also includes the shadow which represents what has been left out The ego in analytical psychology stands for the center of consciousness in the personal self whereas the Self is the center of the psyche and totality and links one to spiritual wholeness Hence the individuated person has confession conscious and unconscious archetypes complexes anima and animus or syzygy numinous gnosis typology symbols dreams the shadow and active imagination These aspects of analytical psychology are then discussed and illustrated with a case history In sum the ego is secondary to the Self in an individuated person Both a mandala and Jungian therapy and analysis are associated with wholeness Opal Whiteley's Beginning and Hoops and Hoopla David H.
