Safe Drinking Water on Tap Britt Mittemeijer, 2012-10-01 More than 20 years ago when our children were very small I felt the need for better drinking water quality and I purchased a small counter top appliance that hooked up to the water tap It didn't take long before I realized that this was just a bandaid and that something more powerful was needed and thus I embarked on a mission to educate myself about home drinking water filtration systems This was pretty much in the days before I had a computer so I looked at trade magazines and sent for every drinking water brochure I could find read them all and compared for quality and price This convinced me very quickly of the benefits and affordability of solid carbon block technology and I ended up with a company that took the water filtration business very seriously and in my opinion did produce and still produces
