Targums and Rabbinic Literature Zondervan, 2024-09-10. Ancient Literature for New Testament Studies is a multivolume series that seeks to introduce key ancient texts that form the cultural, historical and literary context for the study of the New Testament. Each volume will feature introductory essays to the corpus followed by articles on the relevant texts. Each article will address introductory matters, provenance, summary of content, interpretive issues, key passages for New Testament studies and their significance. Neither too technical to be used by students nor too thin on interpretive information to be useful for serious study of the New Testament, this series provides a much needed resource for understanding the New Testament in its first century Jewish and Greco-Roman context. Produced by an international team of leading experts in each corpus, Ancient Literature for New Testament Studies stands to become the standard resource for both scholars and students. Volumes include Apocrypha and the Septuagint, Old Testament Pseudepigrapha, The Dead Sea Scrolls, The Apostolic Fathers, Philo and Josephus, Greco-Roman Literature, Targums and Early Rabbinic Literature, Gnostic Literature, New Testament Apocrypha and Pseudepigrapha.

Literacy, Education and Manuscript Transmission in Byzantium and Beyond Catherine Holmes, Judith Waring, 2021-10-01. Literary sources include astrological texts, saints' lives and florilegia, as well as documentary texts, art and archaeological evidence. The contributors' fields reflect the interdisciplinary scope of this volume, covering history, art history, literary studies and elements that do not belong to the core text itself but belong to their embedding and as such affect their reception Alternatively some texts function purposely in tandem with another text and cannot be understood without that text While the second text informs the way the first one is being understood it can hardly function independently The discussions include the arrangement of textual blocks in the Hebrew Bible how the oral transmission of Jewish Aramaic Bible translations had to be recited as a counterpoint to the Hebrew chant how synagogue poetry presupposes the channels of liturgical instruction how the Talmud can be perceived as a translation of Mishnah how the presence of paratextual elements such as annotations and prefaces influenced the Index Librorum Prohibitorum concerning 16th century Bibles the function of paratext and scope for modern Bible translations This volume will tentatively explore the wide range of paratext and megatext as devices of channeling religious traditions Alternative Targum Traditions Alberdina Houtman, Harry Sysling, 2009 The present study explores the possibility of using variant readings of the Targum of the Prophets to get a better insight into the origin and history of Targum Jonathan The focus is on two sorts of variant readings the Tosefta Targums and the targumic quotations in rabbinic and medieval Jewish literature The chapter on the Tosefta Targums concentrates on variants from the book of Samuel The chapter on the targumic quotations includes quotations of all the Prophets in early Jewish literature In the Appendix a full list is given of all quotations of Targums of the Prophets presently known The book is useful for the study of the genesis of Targum Jonathan as well as for its later developments The Targumic Toseftot to Ezekiel Alinda Damsma, 2012-06-14 This volume offers an in depth treatment of the Targumic Toseftot to Ezekiel by presenting the critical text translation and comprehensive commentary The study further provides new insights into their Aramaic dialect date and provenance as well as their historical and social setting The Targums Paul V.M.
