Alfred Tariff Preferences in Mediterranean Diplomacy Alfred Tovias, 1977      European Integration and the Iberian Economies George N. Yannopoulos, 1989-06-18 An examination of the issues raised by the choice of trade strategies for the promotion of industrialization and economic growth by focusing on the experience of the Iberian economies during the process of their phased integration with the European Community      Current Issues in Commercial Policy and Diplomacy Jonathan Black, Brian Hindley, 1980-06-18      Mediterranean Policy of the European Community Richard Pomfret, 1986-04-14      Legal Aspects of Trade Preferences for Developing States Abdulqawi Yusuf, 1982-01-01      The EUs Enlargement and Mediterranean Strategies M. Maresceau, E. Lannon, 2001-03-01 This book analyses and compares the preferential relations between the EU and the countries on its eastern and southern peripheries It presents a comprehensive study of the emerging pan Euro Mediterranean regional integration and analyses the economic political and social strategies adopted by the EU and will be an indispensable reference work for those working on issues related to EU enlargement and integration

Meeting the Third World Challenge Alasdair I. MacBean, V. N. Balasubramanyam, 1978-01-01      The European Community and the Developing Countries Enzo R. Grilli, 1993 The European Community has long been the largest trading bloc in the world It is also on the way to becoming the world's largest integrated economic zone Its trade aid and development cooperation policies are therefore of great importance to developing countries At the same time the developing countries have continued to be of interest to the Community both as outlets for its exports and capital investments and as sources of raw materials This 1993 book analyses and evaluates European Community trade aid and industrial policies towards developing countries their origin main features logic evolution and effectiveness in reaching the goals assigned to them The author sums up the state of Europe's development policies by describing them as regional in scope colonial in geographical emphasis discriminatory in their effects and lacking in overall cogency This incisive re evaluation illustrates the different strategies the EC countries might pursue in their relations with the outside world as they progress towards fuller economic integration      Mapping European Economic Integration A. Verdun, A. Tovias, 2013-11-14 By examining the various policy subfields of European economic integration such as agriculture trade banking economic governance and sustainability this book offers a comprehensive and wide ranging analysis of developments that have taken place in the past five years aimed at exploring the path of economic integration in Europe      The New Middle East Fawaz A. Gerges, 2014 The New Middle East critically examines the Arab popular uprisings of 2011 12      Market Integration in the European Community J. Pelkmans, 2013-12-01 In the present stage of integration private and public market integration is really what the European Community is all about A stable security setting itself in part a result of European integration and cooperative politics in Western Europe have enabled the creation and maintenance of an elaborate legal system and common institutions facilitating the unification of product markets throughout the Community Of course the pervasive and incessant politicisation of Community decision making at the Ministerial level tends to diminish attention for what actually happens in the Community industrial markets while also obscuring its profound economic impact on European society It is precisely from the fascination with this vivid core of the European Community that this book has arisen I have attempted to combine empirical economic analysis and a minimum of institutional description with economic theory Access to theory has been facilitated by the avoidance of algebraic tools employing only where necessary geometric tools In combining the analytical traditions of international and industrial economics linked to a fairly detailed institutional economics of legal arrangements and competences at the EC level it is hoped to provide the relevant tools to comprehend the industrial Euromarkets

Northern Europe and the Making of the EU's Mediterranean and Middle East Policies Timo Behr, Teija Tiilikainen, 2016-05-23 What drives European foreign policy towards the wider Mediterranean and Middle East region This collection takes an innovative approach to answering this question by considering the impact of intra European divisions on European policies towards this crucial region European foreign policy has traditionally been defined by a clear division of labour southern European member states take the lead in the EU's southern neighbourhood while central and northern European countries drive policies in the EU's eastern neighbourhood The resulting north south split has entrenched geo clientalistic behaviour as a core principle of EU foreign policy making and has fuelled a static intra European competition over influence and resources However as European power dynamics shift these old divisions no longer hold and northern and central European countries have been pushed towards a more pro active role in the region But what factors are shaping the foreign policies of these countries in the Mediterranean and Middle East What has been their contribution to common EU policies And does their growing activism signal an end to old geo clientalistic division as a core driver of European foreign policy

East/West Trade and the GATT System M. M. Kostecki, 1979-06-17

Nuclear Power and the Energy Crisis D. Burn, 1978-06-17

Trade Protection in the European Community Ludger Schuknecht, 2017-10-10 This book first published in 1992 provides an in depth analysis of the EC policy making processes relating to trade protection It argues that the decision making process is biased towards national policy makers leading to the political determination of the EC's administered protection with the outcome being that protection is geared towards domestic producer interests seeking relief from import competition This study offers a unique perspective because it locates the analysis of EC trade protection within the wider framework of EC decision making processes
