The Gryphon Nick Bantock, 2001-08 A new volume in the Griffith and Sabine story this is a tale rich in the artistry mystery and surprise that made the original saga so beloved Illustrations The Gryphon Nick Bantock, 2001 The Epistolary Renaissance Maria Löschnigg, Rebekka Schuh, 2018-09-10 Since the late twentieth century letters in literature have seen a remarkable renaissance The prominence of letters in recent fiction is due in part to the rediscovery by contemporary writers of letters as an effective tool for rendering aspects of historicity liminality marginalization and the expression of subjectivity vis vis an other it is also due however to the artistically challenging inclusion of the new electronic media of communication into fiction While studies of epistolary fiction have so far concentrated on the eighteenth century and on thematic concerns this volume charts the epistolary renaissance in recent literature entering new territory by also focusing on the aesthetic implications of the epistolary mode In particular the essays in this volume illuminate the potential of the epistolary including digital forms for rendering contemporary sensitivities The volume thus offers a comprehensive assessment of letter narratives in contemporary literature Through its focus on the aesthetic and structural aspects of new epistolary fiction the inclusion of various narrative forms and the consideration of both conventional letters and their new digital kindred The Epistolary Renaissance offers novel insight into a multi faceted re new ed genre Epistolarity in a Post-Letter World Sindija Franzetti, 2024-11-18 The study intervenes in a field hitherto dominated by formal and historical analyses of the literary letter Across the five case studies the method of reading epistolarity as a motif is applied to a selection of American novels published after 1990 Nick Bantock s Griffin Lish and Dunn test the limitations of letters for conveying individual experience to a distant other Robinson and Erdrich envision epistolarity as an address to a future Exploring the employment of epistolarity as a motif the study offers an interpretation of the messages these fictions extend for readers in a post letter world Communication technologies and practices may change but epistolarity as a motif a reprise of a scene of encounter that depends on keeping a distance between addresser and addressee remains a deeply compelling site of inquiry in twenty first century literature Pop-Up Books Nancy Larson Bluemel, Rhonda Harris Taylor, 2012-02-02 A convincing explanation of why interactive or movable books should be included in the library collection that documents their value as motivational instructional tools in all areas of the school curriculum across many grade levels Pop up books possess universal appeal Everyone from preschoolers to adults loves to see and tactilely experience the beautiful three dimensional work of Robert Sabuda David A Carter and other pop up book creators Sabuda himself was inspired to become a pop up book artist after experiencing the 1972 classic pop up The Adventures of Super Pickle The effect of these movable books on young minds is uniquely powerful Besides riveting children s attention pop up books can also help build motor skills teach cause and effect and develop spatial understanding of objects Based on their direct experience and many presentations to teachers and librarians the authors have provided template lesson plans with curriculum and standards links for using the

Davis,Mark F Shadle,2007-04-23 Formulaic ways to train students in composition and rhetoric are no longer effective say authors Robert L Davis and Mark F Shadle Scholar teachers must instead reinvent the field from the inside Teaching Multiwriting Researching and Composing with Multiple Genres Media Disciplines and Cultures presents just such a reinvention with multiwriting an alternative open approach to composition Seeking to open the minds of both writers and readers to new understandings the authors argue for the supplanting of the outdated research paper assignment with research projects that use multiple forms
