Halfway to Halfway and Other River Stories Bob Volpert, Dick Linford, Mike Burke, John Cassidy, Brian Chaffin, 2012-06-01 This is a collection of stories by and usually about river guides and outfitters The tales focus on river related events that usually have little to do with whitewater Many don't even take place on a river All say a lot about the culture of guiding and the people attracted to wild places and the odd things that happen once they get there These are the stories shared around a campfire after a day on the water Some are funny some sad some quirky but they all come from personal river experiences and lifelong friendships Join some guides on their day off when they decide to take a raft over a dam to see if they can make it right side up Dive into a vast garbage dump to find the 500 drysuits you threw out with the trash from a 21 day Grand Canyon trip Try to explain how your employees set a Forest Service employee on fire during a torch lit dance on a picnic table Share an evening with an outfitter who is about to lose his business because one of his guests has disappeared on a hike and has been missing all night Get ready to set your underwear on fire if precipitation stays below average because that's how you end a drought Take the Vice President of the United States down a river but never get him or anyone else wet Be part of the wedding of two guides who really only wanted to sleep together but found themselves together forever Steal a bus and lead a wild chase down a mountain canyon highway looking for a group coming off the river Drive home from the airport naked and try to sneak into the house without your wife noticing your lack of attire Not every story is about good times A few are tributes to friends who are no longer with us but belong around our campfire You probably never heard their names but you will enjoy meeting them here They told great stories There is an odd thing that brings folks back for river trips They usually come the first time because of the excitement of rapids and whitewater They come back for another trip because of all the other stuff that happens This book attempts to capture some of that magic the memories and good times running a river with friends fosters The Guide's Guide to Guiding Garth Thompson, 2001 The Professional Guide's Handbook Colby Brokvist, 2022 In the first book of its kind The Professional Guide's Handbook How to Lead Adventure Travel Trips and Expeditions contains everything contemporary guides need to know about their profession exploring what skills are necessary to be successful including an examination of adventure travel and guest expectations leadership strategies trip planning and the guest experience cultural and environmental considerations and being a professional expedition guide Examples of carefully explored topics include guest expectations problem solving risk management decision making emergencies and crises planning and logistics and more Filled with insights and real life anecdotes from the author s own worldwide adventures as an expedition leader the text is both engaging and thorough From developing a better understanding of travelers and their expectations to tried and true group management frameworks the book elevates the technically competent outdoor enthusiast to the level of industry professional River Rafting Guide Certification Manual British Columbia. Registrar of Commercial River Rafting,2002 The Good Guide Alison L. Grinder,1985 Guiding for the guider. The guide company: hints for the guider, etc. (Seventeenth edition.). Girl Guides Association,1960 Halfway to Halfway and Back. More River Stories Dick Linford,Bob Volpert,2018-07-03 Halfway to Halfway Back is a collection of river stories that capture the essence and mood of river guiding and like an old friend and the river itself lure you back for another trip This second book builds on the success of Halfway to Halfway Other River Stories an award winning compilation of river guide tales published in 2012
