find it anywhere I have been to I have been always alone Even when some one is with me I don't feel them my mind is always passionately traveling to places I have never been to and to words I have never heard My life is like my dreams not lucid vague appearance elusive meaning I wander through it without knowing where it will take me or say throw me to which shore will I survive when I reach there There is nothing called certainty what I know is not certain not vivid some I even unknown I usually don't talk I feel I have to sometimes But that's not one of my strength points But I talk to myself frequently I like talking to myself every time I talk to myself I know something new I get deeper in connection with my soul I don't expect the same from anyone I am so complicated to understand yet so simple to feel I have no presence at all that I never feel welcomed or rejected never feel near or far I feel I was forced to walk my path in life Now I am trying to choose it do I have to follow the crowd's lead to be another sad face in the crowd or is it my fate to keep wandering till the end of the soul's learning capacity which I believe is infinite so I will be wandering infinitely I think I am like a mermaid people believe I exist but I don't

The End Richard John Neupert, 1995 Given the importance that spectators grant to the final moments of a motion picture it is surprising to find so little written on how films end and how audiences interpret those closing moments This study investigates endings in film and the lively role they play in how and why viewers make sense of movies Relying upon contemporary literary criticism and film theory the author analyses narrative strategies in films ranging from the classical Hollywood motion picture to the more modern European art cinema To assist readers in understanding the various functions of endings the films are divided into four critical categories the Closed Text film typical of classical works the Open Story films the Open Discourse film and the Open Text film which struggles to defy story resolution Detailed textual analysis of sample films reveal how all of the devices of filmic narration from mise en scene to soundtracks direct a viewer's perception comprehension and interpretation of closure in films Among the sample films that are featured as test cases for studying endings are The Quiet Man Ford 1950 The 400 Blows Truffaut 1959 Weekend Godard 1967 Tout va bien Godard 1972 and Earth Dovzhenko 1930 To round out his informative study of endings in films Neupert also examines a host of diverse titles including Do the Right Thing Lee 1989 Open City Rossellini 1945 and The Graduate Nichols 1967
