Spontaneous Mind Allen Ginsberg, 2001 Far from merely paying respect to a man proclaimed as one of the key figures of twentieth century American literary and cultural history this volume provocatively recreates the impassioned voice of Ginsberg as man poet revolutionary and political activist Always witty and engaging this collection of interviews from throughout Ginsberg's career reveals his attitudes towards poetry and drugs his literary influences and personal relationships

Feast of Excess George Cotkin, 2016 Feast of Excess is an engaging and accessible portrait of The New Sensibility as it was named by Susan Sontag in 1965 The New Sensibility sought to push culture in extreme directions either towards stark minimalism or gaudy maximalism Through vignette profiles of prominent figures John Cage Patricia Highsmith Allen Ginsberg Andy Warhol Anne Sexton John Coltrane Bob Dylan Erica Jong and Thomas Pynchon to name a few George Cotkin presents their bold headline grabbing performances and places them within the historical moment

The Spiritual Imagination of the Beats David Stephen Calonne, 2017-08-17 The Spiritual Imagination of the Beats is the first comprehensive study to explore the role of esoteric occult alchemical shamanistic mystical and magical traditions in the work of eleven major Beat authors The opening chapter discusses Kenneth Rexroth and Robert Duncan as predecessors and important influences on the spiritual orientation of the Beats David Stephen Calonne draws comparisons throughout the book between various approaches individual Beat writers took regarding sacred experience for example Burroughs had significant objections to Buddhist philosophy while Allen Ginsberg and Jack Kerouac both devoted considerable time to studying Buddhist history and texts This book also focuses on authors who have traditionally been neglected in Beat Studies Diane di Prima Bob Kaufman Philip Lamantia and Philip Whalen In addition several understudied work such as Gregory Corso's The Geometric Poem inspired by Corso's deep engagement with ancient Egyptian thought are given close attention Calonne introduces important themes from the history of heterodoxy from Gnosticism Manicheanism and Ismailism to Theosophy and Tarot and demonstrates how inextricably these ideas shaped the Beat literary imagination

No One to Meet Raphael Falco, 2025-09-15 A groundbreaking appreciation of Dylan as a literary practitioner WINNER OF THE ELIZABETH AGEE PRIZE IN AMERICAN LITERATURE The literary establishment tends to regard Bob Dylan as an intriguing if baffling outsider That changed overnight when Dylan was awarded the 2016 Nobel Prize in Literature challenging us to think of him as an integral part of our national and international literary heritage No One to Meet Imitation and Originality in the Songs of Bob Dylan places Dylan the artist within a long tradition of literary production and offers an innovative way to understand his unique and often controversial methods of composition Dylan expert Raphael Falco traces the similarities between the way Dylan borrows digests and transforms traditional songs and what Renaissance writers called imitatio Although Dylan's lyrical postures may suggest an avant garde consciousness No One to Meet shows that Dylan's creative process creatively expands methods used by classical and Renaissance authors Drawing on numerous examples including Dylan's previously unseen manuscript excerpts and archival materials Raphael Falco illuminates how the ancient process of poetic imitation handed down from Greco-Roman antiquity allows us to make sense of Dylan's musical and lyrical technique By placing Dylan firmly in the context of an age-old poetic practice No One to Meet deepens our appreciation of Dylan's songs and allows us to celebrate him as what he truly is a great writer

Herbert Huncke Hilary Holladay, 2015-08-01 Often overlooked as a minor player on the fringes of the Beat Generation and largely dismissed by others as a scam artist junkie and hustler Herbert Huncke was in fact a significant writer who served as a mentor and inspiration to such legendary figures as Allen Ginsberg William Burroughs and Jack Kerouac In this biography author Hilary Holladay has given this unsung poet of the streets his due both in terms of his own literary merit and the major role he played in influencing the Beats and many others Detailing Huncke's colorful life from his childhood on a Wyoming rancher's household and his family's move to Chicago to his rebellion as a 12-year-old runaway and his subsequent run-ins with the law Holladay traces his journeys that subsequently took him to Manhattan where he became a guide to the city's underbelly for those impressionable adventurers seeking the pulse of the city's palpitating literary artistic and musical heart Nominated for a Lambda Literary Prize when first published this work establishes Herbert Huncke in the pantheon of the writers of his generation With revised endnotes and a new index the book confirms Huncke's creative influence from the late 1940s to his death in 1996

Allen Ginsberg's Buddhist Poetics Tony Trigilio, 2007 Publisher description

The Mourning After John Ibson, 2018-11-01 On the battlefields of World War II with their fellow soldiers as the only shield between life and death a generation of American men found themselves connecting with each other in new and profound ways Back home after the war however these intimacies faced both scorn and vicious homophobia The Mourning After makes sense of this cruel irony telling the story of the unmeasured toll exacted upon generations of male friendships John Ibson draws evidence from the contrasting views of male closeness depicted in WWII era fiction by Gore Vidal and John Horne Burns as well as from such wide ranging sources as psychiatry texts child development books the memoirs of veterans children and a slew of vernacular snapshots of happy male couples In this sweeping reinterpretation of the postwar years Ibson argues that a prolonged mourning for tenderness lost lay at the core of midcentury American masculinity leaving far too many men with an unspoken ache that continued long after the fighting stopped forever damaging their relationships with their wives their children and each other

The Nirvana Express Mick Brown, 2023 In 1897 an Indian yogi named Bava Lachman Dass exhibited himself at the Westminster Aquarium in London demonstrating forty eight yoga positions to a bemused audience Four years earlier Hindu philosopher Swami Vivekananda had spoken at the first World Parliament of Religions in Chicago where theosophist Annie Besant rhapsodized about his inborn sense of worth and the exquisite beauty of his spiritual message The Victorians had conflicted views on the religious beliefs and practices of the Indian sub continent blending fascination and suspicion But within two generations legions of young Westerners would be following the hippie trail to India and the Beatles would be meditating at the feet of the guru Maharishi Mahesh Yogi Journalist Mick Brown s vivid account charts the eccentric history of the West s evolving love affair with Indian religion through a curious cast of scholars seekers charlatans and saints From Edwin Arnold whose epic poem about the life of the Buddha became a best seller in Victorian Britain to the occultist and magician Aleister Crowley and from spiritual teachers Jiddu Krishnamurti Meher Baba and Ramana Maharshi to the controversial guru Rajneesh The Nirvana Express is an exhilarating sometimes troubling journey through the West s search for enlightenment

Postmodern Belief Amy Hungerford, 2010-07-01 How can intense religious beliefs coexist with pluralism in America today Examining the role of the religious imagination in contemporary religious practice and in some of the best known works of American literature from the past fifty years Postmodern Belief shows how belief for its own sake a belief absent of doctrine has become an answer to pluralism in a secular age Amy Hungerford reveals how imaginative literature and religious practices together allow novelists poets and critics to express the formal elements of language in transcendent terms conferring upon words a religious value independent of meaning Hungerford explores the work of major American writers including Allen Ginsberg Don DeLillo Cormac McCarthy Toni Morrison and Marilynne Robinson and links their unique visions to the religious worlds they touch She illustrates how Ginsberg s chant infused 1960s poetry echoes the tongue speaking of Charismatic Christians how DeLillo reimagines the novel and the Latin Mass why McCarthy s prose imitates the Bible and why Morrison s fiction needs the supernatural Uncovering how literature and religion conceive of a world where religious belief can escape confrontations with other worldviews Hungerford corrects recent efforts to discard the importance of belief in understanding religious life and argues that belief in belief itself can transform secular reading and writing into a religious act Honoring the ways in which people talk about and practice religion Postmodern Belief highlights the claims of the religious imagination in twentieth century American culture
