Administrative Practices and Political Control in Anatolian and Syro-Anatolian Polities in the 2nd and 1st Millennium BCE Clelia Mora, Giulia Torri, 2023. This volume originates from a research project which was funded within the PRIN program Writing Uses Transmission of Knowledge Administrative Practices and Political Control in Anatolian and Syro-Anatolian Polities in the 2nd and 1st Millennium BCE. The project involved research units from different Italian universities: Torino, Pavia, Bologna, Firenze, Napoli, Suor Orsola Benincasa. The papers presented here seek to fill some gaps in our knowledge of the Hittite Empire and its epigones and offer an updated picture of some aspects of the Hittite and post-Hittite administration in Anatolia and Syria through the analysis and interpretation of epigraphic and archaeological evidence.

China's Left-Behind Children Xiaojin Chen, 2024-04-12. One unintended consequence of the unprecedented rural to urban migration in China over the past three decades is the exponentially increased number of left-behind children, children whose parents migrated to more developed areas and who live with one parent or other extended family members. The daily lives of these children, including their caretaking arrangements, parent-child bonding, and communication, and schooling, are fraught with distractions and uncertainties. Paying special attention to this marginalized group, this book investigates the role of parental migration and the left-behind status in shaping Chinese family dynamics and children's general wellbeing, including their school performance, delinquency, resilience, feelings of ambiguous loss, and other psychological problems. Blending theory, empirical research, and real-world interviews with left-behind children, China's Left-Behind Children provides a uniquely close look at these children's lives while also providing the larger national context that defines and shapes their
