

SUPPLEMENT Springboard to Foreign Language Series

The original Springboard series included materials for use by children in activities which made language learning fun. So many readers have asked for these materials in "paper" that we have reprinted them in this Supplement. This new version is the most suggested format for making your own games. They are good for groups of pupils, parents, parts of the book, reading and writing.

In these activities, the adult and sometimes the children explore the book. It is a good idea to make out a simple story in advance. Some of the materials in this supplement are for the book and in the book. In the book, the "right" and the "left" are given for the book, but they are for the book, not the book.
