ease of finding servants in Santa Fe had accustomed her to hours of time spent as she chose In wartime Los Angeles when servants were impossible to find she suddenly had to do everything and it soon began to feel burdensome Forced to sacrifice precious studio time to the demands of a repetitious household routine she came face to face with a new reality that she must now give up a certain amount of control over her own life Money her own independent income had formerly given her the luxury of time time to be used as a man does in professional activity freed from enervating household chores Now the leveling effect of the war reminded her firmly that she was a woman in a situation where affluence could not buy the uninterrupted freedom to create Her life was turned upside down her priorities questioned her relationship with Ernie Knee strained
