Tate Report Tate Gallery Biennial Report 19961998:

A Gust of Photo-Philia Alexandra Moschovi, 2020-12-15 The first transnational history of photography's accommodation in the art museum. Photography was long regarded as a middle brow art by the art institution. Yet at the turn of the millennium it became the hot global art of our time. In this book part institutional history part account of shifting photographic theories and practices Alexandra Moschovi tells the story of photography's accommodation in and as contemporary art in the art museum. Archival research of key exhibitions and the contrasting collecting policies of MoMA Tate the Guggenheim the V A and the Centre Pompidou offer new insights into how art as photography and photography as art have been collected and exhibited since the 1930s. Moschovi argues that this accommodation not only changed photography's status in art culture and society but also played a significant role in the rebranding of the art museum as a cultural and social site.

British and Irish Paintings in Public Collections Christopher Wright, Catherine May Gordon, 2006-01-01 This book sets a new standard as a work of reference. It covers British and Irish art in public collections from the beginning of the sixteenth century to the end of the nineteenth and it encompasses nearly 9 000 painters and 90 000 paintings in more than 1 700 separate collections. The book includes as well pictures that are now lost some as a consequence of the Second World War and others because of de accessioning mostly from 1950 to about 1975 when Victorian art was out of fashion. By listing many tens of thousands of previously unpublished works including around 13 000 which do not yet have any form of attribution this book becomes a unique and indispensable work of reference one that will transform the study of British and Irish painting.

TateReport Tate Gallery, 1998 Tate Report Tate Gallery, 1992 Tate Gallery Biennial Report Tate Publishing, Limited, 1994-12 Tate Report Tate Gallery, Pierre Bonnard Pierre Bonnard, Musée d'art moderne de la ville de Paris, 2006 Among those painters who incontestably left their mark on twentieth century art Bonnard rises to the top again and again. Museums scholars and viewers regularly return to his oeuvre for reinterpretation passionate and contradictory of what it means to be Modern. In having followed a very personal calling literally and figuratively interior particularly compared to the work of friends like Matisse Bonnard created work as innovative as any of his contemporaries. His recurring themes the nude both classical and erotic the landscape domestic life and the self portrait evolve with him from the nineteenth century to the twentieth from Paris to the south of France alive with constant reinvention. Although for Bonnard the subject was always important his work navigates a sophisticated dialectic between the givens of perception and memory between the image before our eyes and all that it suggests. This substantial reference includes work from the Hermitage and the Museum of Modern Art of the City of Paris which sponsored its publication Contributors include Yve Alain Bois Sarah Whitfield and Georges Roque Photographs from Dina Verny and Henri Cartier Bresson among others document the era and Bonnard s models as he saw them Encyclopedia of Animal Science - (Two-Volume Set) Wilson G.
