Tattered Freedom:

Freedom's Stand Jeanette Windle, 2011-05-18 Three foreigners living in war ravaged Afghanistan Jamil a newly converted Christian relief worker Amy Mallory and Special Forces veteran Steve Wilson search for love and freedom in a country where religious injustice runs rampant Healing Out Loud Sandi Brown, Dr. Michelle Caulk, LPC, 2022-01-04 In this uplifting look into mental health self love and faith Sandi Brown the founder of JOY FM in St Louis and her counselor Dr Michelle Caulk walk through her therapy journey answering the question so many Christian women ask What do I do when I know God loves me but I don't like myself When Sandi began her journey towards healing and freedom she thought she was alone in her struggles By working with Michelle the two found that scores of women experience a disconnect between how they see themselves and God's image Healing Out Loud captures many of the insecurities the modern woman faces in her walk with Christ Written in conversational prose Brown and Caulk's combined voice creates an accessible path for readers to face their vulnerabilities with biblical insight For Younger Readers; Braille and Talking Books, 2010 The Independent, 1901 The Natural World in Pictures and Poems Dane Ann, Ingrid Smith-Johnsen, 2013-07-18 The Natural World in Pictures and Poems is a collection of beautiful nature photographs which have inspired many thought provoking and entertaining poems It will take your thoughts on a delightful journey to frozen waterfalls and show you a rainbow of flowers This colorful book is full of nature images from around the world that will educate and entertain Learn about the great hornbill and her young from the poem Monogamous or ponder God's relationship with nature as you read the poem A Groundhog's Prayer Lakes trees mountains butterflies bees and much more are here for your enjoyment and edification The Natural World in Pictures and Poems takes an educational and relaxing journey with Ingrid and Dane through the natural world to several of nature's sometimes overlooked beauty and intrigue It is sure to please nature lovers children teachers and parents alike The Indian Partition in Literature and Films Rini Bhattacharya Mehta, Debali Mookerjee-Leonard, 2014-12-17 This book presents an examination of fictional representations in books and films of the 1947 Partition that led to the creation of the sovereign nation states of India and Pakistan While the process of representing the Partition experience through words and images began in the late 1940s it is only in the last few decades that literary critics and film scholars have begun to analyse the work The emerging critical scholarship on the Partition and its aftermath has deepened our understanding of the relationship between historical trauma collective memory and cultural processes and this book provides critical readings of literary and cinematic texts on the impact of the Partition both in the Punjab and in Bengal The collection assembles studies on Anglophone writings with those on the largely unexplored vernacular works and those which have rarely found a place in discussions on the Partition It looks at representations of women's experiences of gendered violence in the Partition riots and how literary texts have filled in the lack of the human dimension in Partition histories The book goes on to highlight how the memory of the Partition is preserved and how the creative arts relation to public memory and its place within the public sphere has changed through time Collectively the essays present a nuanced understanding of how the experience of violence displacement and trauma shaped postcolonial societies and subjectivities in the Indian subcontinent Mapping the diverse topographies of Partition related uncertainties and covering both well known and lesser known texts on the Partition this book will be a useful contribution to studies of South Asian History Asian Literature and Asian Film

South African Literary Studies Christopher J. Lee, Andrew Offenburger, 2025-09-22 The collection delves into crucial themes and debates in South African literature addressing the innovative aesthetics of Black poetry the political complexities of white writing non fiction s significance and the role of geography in South Africa s regional fiction It particularly examines how literary works have engaged with the country s evolving post apartheid identity and its place in global contexts South African Literary Studies A Safundi Reader on Genre Method and Ideas 1999 2024 marks the culminating volume in a series celebrating Safundi s twenty fifth anniversary This comprehensive collection showcases the journal s evolution from its initial focus on US South African comparative histories to its embrace of a wider range of interdisciplinary and literary studies Divided into seven sections this volume explores a diverse set of literary approaches including transnational comparisons featuring influential figures like Maya Angelou Alan Paton Zora Neale Hurston and Bessie Head It further addresses the works of poets and novelists who have shaped South African literature including Lesego Rampolokeng Keorapetse Kgositsile and J M Coetzee while also offering illuminating interviews with writers such as Chris Abani C A Davids and Mark Behr Through its exploration of various genres methods and ideas this volume retains Safundi s founding spirit of examining comparative and transnational connections while also demonstrating how literary criticism has become indispensable in defining South African culture and identity after apartheid

Freedom's Captives Yesenia Barragan, 2021-07 Freedom's Captives offers a compelling narrative driven history of the gradual abolition of slavery in the majority black Colombian Pacific

Raising Freedom's Child Mary Niall Mitchell, 2010-04-09 This work examines slave emancipation and opposition to it as a far reaching national event with profound social political and cultural consequences The author analyzes multiple views of the African American child to demonstrate how Americans contested and defended slavery and its abolition
