Te Aho Tapu Mick Pendergrast, 1987 A look at the techniques styles and history of the art of Maori women s weaving

Te Aho Tapu Mick Pendergrast, Brian Brake, 1987-01-01      Diggeress Te Kanawa Diggeress Te Kanawa, Arianna Sheehan, Waikato Museum of Art and History, 2004*      Alien Rites? Peter Nicholas Davies, 2017-11-28 The author examines some of the issues arising from the recent introduction of contemporary English language into Anglican worship especially in the authorised liturgy of England and New Zealand Three key questions are addressed Are there criteria for worship which are satisfactorily fulfilled by contemporary language To what extent is the language used in modern liturgies truly contemporary reflecting its social and cultural milieu How has the introduction of contemporary language been received by regular Anglican worshippers Based on a large body of evidence the author reaches conclusions which are both reassuring and disturbing      Aho Mutunga Kore Miriama Evans, Ranui Ngarimu, 2005 This is a beautifully presented book featuring some stunning images and concise accounts of the concepts and values of traditional and contemporary Maori weaving Featuring some of New Zealand s foremost Maori expert weavers The Eternal Thread The Art of Maori Weaving celebrates innovation and development of weaving and plaiting as art forms in modern times while acknowledging the technology developed by weavers through the past centuries      Power of the Talking Stick Sharon J Ridgeway, Peter J Jacques, 2015-11-17 The Power of the Talking Stick makes the case that reaching back to the beginning of the nation state and all through the current period of corporate led globalisation our governments and social institutions have been engaged in activities that will ultimately extinguish the world s ecological life support systems This book offers an alternative listening to indigenous leaders and others whose voices often go unheard in the din of contemporary culture Sharon Ridgeway and Peter Jacques offer a stark warning but their insights are firmly grounded in traditional knowledge and provide a way to see past the politics and rescue the earth An important resource for climate activists students and academics      The New Imperial Order Makere Stewart-Harawira, 2013-07-18 This important book discusses the political economy of world order and the basic ideological and ontological grounds upon which the emergent global order is based Starting from a Maori perspective it examines the development of international law and the world order of nation states In engaging with these issues across macro and micro levels the international arena the national state and forms of regionalism are identified as sites for the reshaping of the global politico economic order and the emergence of Empire Overarching these problematics is the emergence of a new form of global domination in which the connecting roles of militarism and the economy and the increase in technologies of surveillance and control have acquired overt significance      The Pacific Arts of Polynesia and Micronesia Adrienne L. Kaeppeler, 2008-03-27 The Pacific Ocean covers one third of the earth s surface Comprising thousands of islands and hundreds of cultural groups Polynesia and Micronesia cover a large part of this vast ocean from the dramatic mountains of Hawaii to the small flat coral islands of Kiribati Including both traditional and contemporary arts this book introduces the rich artistic traditions of these two regions traditions that have had a considerable impact on western art in the twentieth century through the influence of artists such as Gauguin Instead of looking at Polynesia and Micronesia separately the book focuses on the artistic types styles and concepts that they share placing each in its wider cultural context From the textiles of Tonga to the canoes of Tahiti Adrienne Kaeppler looks at religious and sacred rituals and objects carving architecture tattooing personal ornaments basket making clothing textiles fashion the oral arts dance music and musical instruments even canoe construction to provide the ultimate introduction to the rich and vibrant artistic cultures of the Polynesian and Micronesian islands

Possessions Nicholas Thomas, 2022-09-01 The arts of Africa Oceania and native America famously inspired twentieth century modernist artists such as Picasso Matisse and Ernst The politics of such stimulus however have long been highly contentious was this a cross cultural discovery to be celebrated or just one more example of Western colonial appropriation This revelatory book explores cross cultural art through the lens of settler societies such as Australia and New Zealand where Europeans made new nations displacing and outnumbering but never eclipsing native peoples In this dynamic of dispossession and resistance visual art has loomed large Settler artists and designers drew upon Indigenous motifs and styles in their search for distinctive identities Yet powerful Indigenous art traditions have asserted the presence of First Nations peoples and their claims to place history and sovereignty Cultural exchange has been a two way process and an unpredictable one contemporary Indigenous art draws on global contemporary practice but moves beyond a bland affirmation of hybrid identities to insist on the enduring values and attachment to place of Indigenous peoples

A New Zealand Book of Beasts Annie Potts, Philip Armstrong, Deidre Brown, 2014-03-01 Touching on indigenous Maori relationships with the now extinct flightless moa the attitudes of Pakeha or European settlers toward sheep the iconography of whales and dolphins the problems of pest control and the pleasures of pet keeping this modern day bestiary is a fascinating study of human how they regard inhabit and make use of the natural world and how they think about what they buy eat wear watch and read Rich multifaceted and engaging A New Zealand Book of Beasts satisfyingly explores how culture both shapes and is shaped by the beasts of Aotearoa
