Good Eats Jennifer Cognard-Black, Melissa A. Goldthwaite, 2024-01-09 A collection of insightful and personal essays on the role of food in our lives In an age of mass factory farming processed and pre packaged meals and unprecedented food waste how does one eat ethically Featuring a highly diverse ensemble of award winning writers chefs farmers activists educators and journalists Good Eats invites readers to think about what it means to eat according to individual and collective values These essays are not lectures about what you should eat nor an advertisement for the latest diet Instead the contributors tell stories of real people real bellies real bodies including the writers themselves who seek to understand the experiences cultures histories and systems that have shaped their eating and their ethics A wide array of themes topics and perspectives inform the selections within Good Eats contributing to an enhanced understanding of how we eat as individuals and in groups From factory farming and the exploitative labor practices surrounding chocolate production to Indigenous foodways and home and community gardens the topics featured in this collection describe the wider context of sustenance and ethical choices Good Eats will encourage you to become more mindful of what and how you eat and to consider the larger systems and cultures that shape that eating These essays turn mundane meals into remarkable symbols of how we live encouraging each of us to find food that is both sustaining and sustainable Contributors include Ross Gay DeLyssa Begay Lynn Z Bloom Michael P Branch Nikky Finney Shirley Geok lin Lim Barbara J King Aimee Nezhukumatathil Leah Penniman Adrienne Su Ira Sukrungruang Tina Vasquez Nicole Walker Th r se Nelson Lisa Knopp Jane Brox Maureen Stanton Tat Walker and many others

The Interrogation Rooms of the Korean War Monica Kim, 2019 Traditional histories of the Korean War have long focused on violations of the thirty eighth parallel the line drawn by American and Soviet officials in 1945 dividing the Korean peninsula But The interrogation rooms of the Korean War presents an entirely new narrative shifting the perspective from the boundaries of the battlefield to inside the interrogation room Upending conventional notions of what we think of as geographies of military conflict Monica Kim demonstrates how the Korean War evolved from a fight over territory to one over human interiority and the individual human subject forging the template for the U S wars of intervention that would predominate during the latter half of the twentieth century and beyond Kim looks at how during the armistice negotiations the United States and their allies proposed a new kind of interrogation room one in which POWs could exercise their free will and choose which country they would go to after the ceasefire The global controversy that erupted exposed how interrogation rooms had become a flashpoint for the struggles between the ambitions of empire and the demands for decolonization as the aim of interrogation was to produce subjects who attested to a nation s right to govern The complex web of interrogators and prisoners Japanese American interrogators Indian military personnel Korean POWs and interrogators and American POWs that Kim uncovers contradicts the simple story in U S popular memory of brainwashing
