Teach The Children Meditation:

Teach the Children Meditation Saly L. Harper, 2003-03-31 Many people dream of a world filled with peace and kindness I believe that a key that will unlock the door to that dream is teaching children ours and others to meditate Wouldn't it be wonderful to see children not in any particular religious or cultural setting meditating just to be peaceful What a gift it would be to our children ourselves and our communities to open this magic door of the inner self to our children Some religions and spiritual communities in this country teach meditation as a way to know God and ourselves Yet the children are not taught to meditate at least not in any systematic way Yoga or TM Transcendental Meditation are two exceptions In the following chapters you will find a planned design to entice a child to open the magic door of self through the practice of meditation This book is like a series of lesson plans designed to teach meditation to individuals and groups of children of all ages These instructions can be used by parents teachers and caregivers even if they have never meditated There are many types and styles of meditations discussed in this book You may find you want to use others with which you are more familiar If you choose to vary or add to the methods presented be willing to take the time to use a framework and follow the steps leading through the process The plans described here will make it easier for you to create a successful routine for developing an effective meditation process with children and teens You may ask Why do I need to teach meditation or need a plan to follow If you have meditated on a regular schedule from before your child's birth and not let the birth interfere with that meditation schedule and if your child has watched you do so and if that child has joined you from time to time by imitation or invitation or both and if you've encouraged the child with discussion and invitation to join you then you don't need a plan Your life style is the plan People from some eastern cultures grow up in this type of environment Their lifestyle and culture support the meditation process In these countries adults often meditate regularly and children observe and imitate this practice Few people in western cultures experience that kind of example However with a bit of patience preparation and a willingness to accept meditation as a daily priority we can enjoy this practice and the accompanying peace it brings to our lives and those of our families This may sound like a lot of work following a plan and making all the preparations to sit quietly for just a few minutes a day But stop and ask yourself do you necessarily follow the practices that could provide you with a better lifestyle just because you believe in them If you believe it is wise and good for you to meditate and that you will probably benefit from doing so will you do it Will you teach your children to do it If the answer is yes then wonderful you probably don't need this book But if you are like most of us and you need the external discipline of a plan some steps to follow to lead you where you want to go then this book is for you Having a plan and using organization and structure are only means to an end This book offers a plan within a structure that works for me and for those I have taught It takes very little time to learn this plan Give it a chance and you'll soon be meditating with your sons and daughters The benefits are nothing short of claiming a space for your soul and the soul of your child to grow in Here is where giving and receiving become one When teaching meditation parents come as bearers of peace and gentleness to their children. You will be teaching and learning how to make a space in your lives for something very precious. There is no doubt in my mind that you can do it. Don't be afraid to try it. Do not be impatient with yourself. If you skip a day or get side tracked, take a deep breath and start again. Peace begins within each individual heart and spreads out to encompass all the world. The Peace Song song says, 'Let there be peace on earth and let it begin with me.' It is always true as a parent that as we teach our children, we teach ourselves. It is the child's gift to us. Let the fact that you picked up this book be a special sign to yourself. A sign of willingness of desire for peace and of your love of a child.

How to Teach Meditation to Children David Fontana, Ingrid Slack, 2017-09-19 This is the classic guide to teaching children of different ages how to meditate, helping them deal with anxiety, shyness and depression and improving concentration, creativity, emotional balance and self confidence. This is a new edition of the classic guide to teaching meditation to children, one of the first and still one of the best in terms of clarity, practicality and usability. Avoiding religious terminology, it is aimed at parents and teachers and explains techniques for working with children in different age groups, 5 upward, offering a wide range of easy to follow and effective exercises. The book explains the benefits of meditation for children, from relieving shyness and anxiety to reducing aggression and impatience. Meditation has also proved helpful when treating asthma, insomnia and depression and in boosting concentration, emotional balance and creativity. It is one of the best tools we can offer children to help them cope with pressures at home and at school. It gives even very young children power over their thinking and emotions through enhanced self understanding and is incredibly valuable in helping adolescents to navigate the transition from childhood to adulthood. An attractive, friendly design highlights the exercises and case studies, making the book easy to navigate. The text has been updated for this new edition by parenting and meditation expert Amber Hatch, author of the bestselling Mindfulness for Parents and she has also written a foreword.

Baby Buddhas Lisa Desmond, 2004-08 Baby Buddhas: A Guide for Teaching Meditation to Children is the first book to show parents and educators how to teach meditation to preschool age children. Through irresistible photos and easy to follow text, Lisa Desmond clearly explains her copyrighted method of teaching meditation to children 18 months to three years old. Baby Buddhas also highlights the benefits of meditation for parents and children and shows how to incorporate meditation into family life. Part One, Creating Your Space, explains how to create a simple meditation space in the home or school and explains the importance of sound posture and breathing. In Part Two, Adult Meditations, adults learn three meditations to give them an opportunity to learn and meditate on their own before teaching children. Part Three, Children's Meditations, includes 10 meditations suitable for children, organized from simplest to most complex. The children's meditations include the Sunshine Meditation in which the child learns to breathe in a sunshine ball of light full of love. The Om Meditation helps children calm themselves and feel love even when their parents are away. All the children's meditations use repetition and simple words and images that children can easily understand. Parents who have used Lisa's techniques marvel at how their children have become calmer and more focused since they started meditating With Baby Buddhas parents and educators can give the children in their care a gift that will last a lifetime How to Teach Meditation to Children David Fontana, Ingrid Slack, 2017-09 Raising Calm Kids Peggy Mulvihill, 2013-06-03 Are you searching for some sacred time with your child and your family Peggy a single mom inspires family quality time with mindfulness meditation These simple steps for parents and caregivers provide tools for creating peaceful happy and calm kids This book is a must read for innovative methods of teaching kids to access their own inner strength They will also learn the secret to calming themselves down Her twenty one years of teaching in the classroom gave birth to successful strategies that work at home or school Parents searching for ways to help their child relax and focus on being happy are natural outcomes of these mindfulness meditation techniques When children are asked why they enjoy meditation in this way they respond with similar answers It makes me happy feel peace and I am able to hear myself think My regular meditation kids have established their own practice Oftentimes the parents laugh as they tell me a story that occurred in their home If the child sees the parent upset the child simply suggests to the parent to meditate or take three deep breaths It is beneficial to do as a family or to enjoy some silent time by meditating alone Whether children are anxious wiggly or shy this book gives them ways to settle down with a peaceful heart
