of Language and Mobility challenges the assumption that mobility is a new norm. It maps new developments in language and mobility scholarship tracing how the mobility of language people and knowledge intersects with multiplicity infrastructures historicity new political formations and processes of world making. By decentering mobility this handbook questions which processes come to be recognized as mobile and how mobility is historically shaped regulated valued and stigmatized. By recentring mobility it explores its productive dimensions how it sustains and aligns with celebratory ideologies of globalization technology and agency creates value and contributes to the management and legitimation of difference and inequality. Mobility here is not just about movement it shapes time space subjectivities power and systems of accumulation.

Language, Identity and Education on the Arabian Peninsula Louisa Buckingham, 2016-11-29. This collection examines the urban multilingual realities of inhabitants of the Arabian Peninsula in the early 21st century from the perspectives of learners teachers and researchers. Focusing on both public and private spheres it considers the importance of both English and immigrants languages in a context of rapid socioeconomic development. Extending beyond English Arabic societal bilingualism the language practices of the Peninsula's citizens and residents serve multiple purposes in their daily lived realities. Chapters on home and heritage languages identity ELT commercial signage and academic publishing contribute to a deepening understanding of the inherent linguistic diversity in these dynamic societies.
