

The background of the book cover is a detailed illustration of a still life. In the upper right, a wooden mortar and pestle are shown, with the mortar containing dark, ground herbs. To the left, a white ceramic bowl holds several green, pointed leaves. The central area is a light green surface, possibly a tablecloth, with a large, faint, circular watermark of a flower. In the lower foreground, there are vibrant yellow and orange flowers, some in full bloom and others as buds, along with green stems and leaves. The overall style is artistic and naturalistic, emphasizing the theme of herbalism.
