Teacher Stories Starting The Year With Whole Language:

Stories From the Heart Richard J. Meyer, 2013-10-18 Stories from the Heart is for by and about prospective and practicing teachers understanding themselves as curious and literate beings making connections with colleagues and researching their own literacy and the literacy lives of their students. It demonstrates the power and importance of story in our own lives as literate individuals. Readers are encouraged to tell, write or re-create the stories of their literacy lives in order to understand how they learn and teach. Begin the journey into writing the stories of others. Literacy lives find support in their researching endeavors and examine the idea of framing stories by using the work of other teachers and researchers.

Whole Language Teaching, Whole-hearted Practice Monica Taylor, 2007 This seminal collection brings together the multiple perspectives of whole language educators over the course of the past thirty-five years. The essays illustrate the complex ways in which whole language teachers have been and continue to be political activists through their interactions with students, the teachers' beliefs about teaching, learning and curriculum, their commitment to critical thinking and social justice, their collaborative engagements with other teachers, their role as leaders of change in schools and communities, and finally their activism in society. Although many believe that we are living in a climate where the term whole language is considered taboo, the contributors to this book demonstrate hopefulness for the future of whole language. As Yetta and Ken Goodman write in the concluding chapter, whole language is alive and well. 101 Surefire Ways to Start the School Year

Joan Novelli, Dr. Susan Shafer, 1999 Quick tips to use in the classroom Literature-based Math Activities Alison Abrohms, 1992 This unique resource uses 40 popular children's books as springboards to math learning. It's brimming with activities and reproducibles that focus on number sense, operations, fractions, patterns, measurement, money, time, probability, and much more. 75 Creative Ways to Publish Students' Writing Cherlyn Sunflower, 1993 Easy, inexpensive fun ways to celebrate students' writing.

The Body Book Donald M. Silver, 1993 With step-by-step directions, lessons, projects, cooperative learning activities, and more, here are reproducible cut-and-paste patterns for assembling and understanding the systems and organs of the human body. 75 Picture Prompts for Young Writers Rick Brown, 1993-07 A collection of reproducible visual prompts designed to help children with creative writing.

Beginning to Spell Rebecca Treiman, 1993 This study on the psycholinguistics of spelling supplies the theoretical framework necessary to understand how children's ability to write is related to their ability to speak a language. The importance of learning to spell is highlighted, and the findings presented outline the implications for how spelling should best be taught. Big Magic Number Puzzles Allyne Brumbaugh, 1992-11

1001 instant manipulatives for math Alison Abrohms, 1995-06
