

Heart: Love at First Beat

Tim 'Scoop' Sullivan

Few bands really play at Notre Dame concerts. Though the list of big-name groups who have performed here is impressive, due mostly to the diligence of the Student Union Concert Commission, the number of bands who give more than a quick review of hit songs and a stale show is limited to Bruce Springsteen, CSN, and Marshall Tucker.

Groups aren't lured to the ACC by the promise of big bucks or fantastically responsive crowds, but rather because South Bend is a convenient stopover gig between the real shows of Chicago and Detroit. It is difficult to give it your all when the entire audience seems under sedation and you're only going to make half of what you could cash in.

So it was with some trepidation that I agreed to review the Heart concert last Thursday. Long a fan of the Wilson sisters, I had no desire to watch whatever respect I had for the band go down the drain with a "half-hearted" performance. But, recalling the surprises of CSN and Springsteen, I decided to go, hopeful of a decent concert.

The evening began like a breakfast of cold oatmeal--tolerable but not enjoyable. The warm-up band was Exile, composers of one hit song called "I Want to Kiss You All Over," a tribute to oral sex and Freudian fixations. Being from Kentucky, the success of the group is based in its unusual formula--redneck disco. However, the good ole boys gone commercial seemed sincere in their efforts, and so the mostly townie audience, anxious for a rowdy evening, ate it up.

Between the two bands' sets, I took the liberty of closely examining the stage. Though simple and spacious, the multilevel design was elaborately lighted and armed with the latest sound equipment. The guitars were wired with radio units, giving the group complete freedom to roam about. The mixing was computer monitored, delivering the clearest, most accurate reproduction possible.

It didn't take long for the group to appear, opening their set in a blazing flash and columns of smoke with

"Fire," from their new "Dog and Butterfly" album. Clad in Oriental Dress, Heart seemed to be emulating the Japanese style of that latest release.

But the group did not obsess themselves with promoting the album, but instead went right into a medley of hits--"Heartless," "Magic Man," "Crazy on You," and "Straight On." Each was more impressive than the preceding, as the light show above and beneath the stage interplayed with the special effects and sheer energy of the music.

Rodger Fisher somehow managed to convolute his fingers into the 'most painful-looking chords I have ever witnessed, utilizing a variety of guitars. Nancy Wilson, oozing with sensuality, provided a subtle acoustic backdrop for the clear, powerful vocals of her equally attractive sister, Ann. Though Heart is far from an energetic performing band, the raw energy of the music itself, coupled with the intense special effects, created an exciting and impressive show.

The success of Heart's songs lies in the group's ability to interplay and interchange acoustic and electric sections, while finally culminating in a grand finale of rhythm. In addition, the group tries to shy away from banality and simplistic lyrics, focusing instead on ballads like "Magazine," an insight into death and rebirth. The touching theatrical performance with this song received a standing ovation.

But "at heart," Heart is a rock band, as evidenced by their encore, Led Zeppelin's "Rock and Roll," enjoyably done. The concert ended with Nilsson's "Can't Live Without You," mellowing everyone down from a breathtakingly fast-moving night.

What truly impressed me was Ann Wilson's handling of the crowd. Besides being a lovely woman, she was appreciative and pleasant, thanking the crowd at every moment and encouraging them to feel the varying tones of the songs. At the end of the show, she told the grateful audience, "Thank you all. You really made us feel good tonight!"

I felt good, too. Heart had not let me down.

Pedagogy of the Heart Paulo Freire, 2021-05-20 Pedagogy of the Heart represents some of the last writings by Paulo Freire. In this work perhaps more so than any other Freire presents a coherent set of principles for education and politics. For those who have read Freire's other works the book includes new discussions of familiar subjects including community, neoliberalism, faith, hope, the oppressed, and exile. For those coming to Freire for the first time the book will open up new ways of looking at the interrelations of education and political struggle. Freire reveals himself as a radical reformer whose lifelong commitment to the vulnerable, the illiterate, and the marginalised has had a profound impact on society and education today. The text includes substantive notes by Ana Maria Araújo Freire, a foreword by Martin Carnoy, a preface by Ladislau Dowbor, as well as a substantive new introduction by Antonia Darder who holds the Leavey Presidential Endowed Chair in Ethics and Moral Leadership in the School of Education at Loyola Marymount University USA. Translated by Donaldo Macedo and Alexandre Oliveira. The Heart in Exile Bernard Durrant, 1995-01-01 How To Get a Life, Vol. 1: Empowering Wisdom for the Heart and Soul Lawrence Baines, Ph.D., Daniel McBrayer, Ph.D., 2003-04 Presented in an easy to digest format with an uplifting message How to Get a Life offers individual chapters on the life views of some of the most important and powerful people in history. Heart of the Matter Arthur Green, 2015-04-01 Judaism like all the great religions has a strand within it that sees inward devotion as an opening of the human heart to God's presence. This voice is not always easy to hear in a tradition where so much attention is devoted to the how rather than the why of religious living. The devotional claim certainly a key part of Judaism's biblical heritage has reasserted itself in the teachings of individual mystics and in the emergence of religious movements over the long course of Jewish history. This volume represents Rabbi Arthur Green's own quest for such a Judaism both as a scholar and as a contemporary seeker. This collection of essays brings together Green's scholarly writings centered on the history of early Hasidism and his highly personal approach to a rebirth of Jewish spirituality in our own day. In choosing to present them in this way he asserts a claim that they are all of a piece. They represent one man's attempt to wade through history and text, language and symbol, an array of voices both past and present while always focusing on the essential question: What does it mean to be a religious human being and what does Judaism teach us about it? This the author considers to be the heart of the matter. Publisher's description
