Halio,1995 After an historical survey of A Midsummer Night's Dream from Shakespeare's time through to the 19th century

Chapters are devoted to productions by Max Reinhardt, Peter Hall, Robert Lepage and especially to Peter Brook's landmark production in 1970 and the reactions to it. Using a wealth of personal experience as well as original promptbooks and critical reviews, Halio shows how differently but still very effectively the play may be staged as the wide variety of plays he records. This second enlarged edition contains three new chapters on Adrian Noble's RSC production and film, Michael Hoffman's film and the Dream in China. Written in clear jargon-free language, this is the only book so far in print that offers an extended study of major 20th century productions of the Dream in their historical context.
