The Man Who Just Didn't Care:

The Man Who Just Didn't Care Ray Garmon, 2000-10-26 Coy Johnson appears to have it all He's young enough to enjoy his money his dream house and his gorgeous girlfriend whose mission in life is to please him in every way Hell her husband even likes him On top of everything else he's an accomplished musician and he's not bad looking either Then why does he suddenly cease to give a damn For no particular reason he becomes a man who just doesn't care That attitude is sorely tested when an old friend makes an attempt on his life almost emasculating him and trashing his home Coy is forced to viciously defend himself Then he finds that his family has frighteningly disgusting skeletons in its closet This knowledge reveals that he isn't at all the person he'd always thought himself to be His quiet peaceful life and everything he'd believed about himself and his father are shattered Then his one true love is slaughtered in the most horrific way imaginable and he's forced to come face to face with true evil He must find a way to fight people he doesn't know for reasons he doesn't understand and become something he never wanted to be
