A lone passenger sat well up forward. But the crouched figure made no answer to the conductor's polite. End of the run sir because sometime during the course of the bus's run his throat had been neatly but effectively cut. This man was Charles Anstruther a popular writer of mystery stories. Van Dusen Ormsberry a great but very human detective is called to take charge of the case. He believes that this murder is connected with the unsolved murder the year before of the millionaire John Fortescue. Evidence piles up to support his contention but the murderer's identity remains unknown while the mass of collected evidence is sifted and excitement runs high as the various clues are tracked down. This is an absorbing thriller far above the average convincing true to life and true to the best.
