

What lies in the middle is the truth. It has many faces; one is certainly comical, another sad, a third evil, a fourth tragic, a fifth funny, a sixth is a grimace, and so forth.

Should one of these faces become particularly obtrusive, are we thus recognize that we have deviated from certain truth and approach an extreme that constitutes a definite impasse should we decide to pursue that route.

The Many Faces Of Truth:

The Many Faces of Relativism Maria Baghramian, 2015-10-14 This book is a study of relativism as a dominant intellectual preoccupation of our time. Relativism asks how we are to find a way out of intractable differences of perspectives and disagreements in various domains. Standards of truth, rationality and ethical right and wrong vary greatly and there are no universal criteria for adjudicating between them. In considering this problem, relativism suggests that what is true or right can only be determined within variable contexts of assessment. This book brings together articles published in the International Journal of Philosophical Studies over a period of 17 years as well as in a Special Issue of the journal published in 2004. The chapters in Section I discuss some of the main forms of relativism. Section II sheds light on the different motivations for relativism, assessing their strengths and weaknesses. Section III provides a detailed examination of the vexed question of whether Ludwig Wittgenstein in his later work supported relativism. The varied responses to this important question shed light on the issues discussed in Sections I and II. This collection is a lively and engaging resource for scholars interested in the crucial impact relativism has had on the way we think about the meaning of truth and what is right and wrong. The chapters in this book were originally published in the International Journal of Philosophical Studies. The Many Faces of Faith Richard R. Losch, 2002 Designed to introduce general readers to the great diversity of religion that exists today, this fascinating and very useful book provides short descriptions of the beliefs and practices of the world's religions and the denominational branches of Christianity. Now in paperback. The Many Faces of Philosophy Amélie Oksenberg Rorty, 2004-08-19 This historically based collection of philosophers' reflections, letters, journals, and prefaces that reveals their hopes and hesitations, their triumphs and struggles, their deepest doubts and convictions, allows us to witness philosophical thought in process. Ranging from Plato to Hannah Arendt, with contributions from 44 philosophers (Augustine, Maimonides, Al-Ghazali, Descartes, Pascal, Leibniz, Voltaire, Rousseau, Hobbes, Hume, Kant, Nietzsche, Kierkegaard, Wittgenstein, among others), this remarkable collection documents philosophers' claim that they change as well as understand the world. In her introductory essay, Witnessing Philosophers, Amélie Rorty locates philosophers' reflections in the larger context of the many facets of their other activities and commitments. The Many Faces of Subud Riantee Lydia Rand, 2005-04-18 Subud is a direct and spontaneous spiritual experience that allows people to receive a contact with the Great Life Force. It reawakens their inner feeling and puts them in touch with their own guidance, eventually bringing to the surface their true nature, which was before obstructed and cluttered with erroneous beliefs, ancestral patterns of behavior, culture, education, and their family malfunctions. Many have found a deeper understanding of their own religious beliefs from the evidence they receive for themselves. Others have come to actualize their true talent and work. There are Subud groups in eighty countries, bringing together harmoniously people of many different religious and ethnic backgrounds. The spiritual practice or latihan arises from within. It is a natural process that occurs without effort or study. This book is the result of the collaborative effort of three women who have practiced the latihan of Subud for decades It compiles testimonies of Subud members from all over the world on different topics Each chapter begins with a short account of observations experiences receivings and dreams on the subject People interviewed were of different age groups social and ethnic backgrounds some newly opened in Subud some older members some second and third generation Subud The opening latihan when one first receives this contact is a ceremony of introduction into the spiritual exercise after a three month period of inquiry referred to as the probation or investigation period Through the latihan people renew their contact with the power of God and become aware of the latent powers that reside in all of humankind The central feature of Subud is the latihan kejiwaan or inner training which takes place for half an hour up to an hour two or three times a week and is practiced by men and women separately Subud has little doctrinal teaching except for the belief in divine power and higher centers of consciousness The implication is that people practicing the latihan align themselves with those higher centers It is available to any person seventeen and older who has a sincere wish to worship God and wants to receive this contact The action of the latihan within each person allows the power of God to express itself spontaneously through singing chanting shouting moving dancing crying laughing etc Subuds founder Bapak Muhammad Subuh explains that in this way when in the latihan we make a complete surrender to the Power of God or the Great Life Force we can receive the education of our inner selves free from interference by our minds and hearts and according to our own individual needs Participants have often reported strong feelings of rapture and release psychological and physical healing During latihan one lets go of thoughts and emotions in order to follow what surfaces those movements and sounds that spontaneously arise from deep within It is a form of cleansing which allows the worship of God to become stronger and less obstructed a training that lets individuals get in touch develop and trust their inner guidance enabling the complete self to emerge through an action that comes from beyond the thinking and the will The Many Faces of Truth Donna R. Nikolaj J.L.L. Pedersen, Cory D. Wright, 2013-02-14 The relative merits and demerits of historically prominent views about truth such as the correspondence theory coherentism pragmatism verificationism and instrumentalism have been subject to much attention and have fueled the long lived debate over which of these views is the most plausible While diverging in their specific philosophical commitments adherents of these views are in agreement in at least one fundamental respect they are all alethic monists They endorse the thesis that there is only one property in virtue of which propositions can be true and so in this sense take truth to be one The truth pluralist on the other hand rejects this idea there are several properties in virtue of which propositions can be true The literature on truth pluralism has been growing steadily for the past twenty years This volume however is the first to focus specifically on pluralism about truth Part I is dedicated to the development investigation and critical discussion of different forms of pluralism One additional reason to examine truth pluralism is the significant connections it bears to other debates in the truth literature particularly debates concerning traditional theories of truth and the deflationism inflationism divide Parts II and III of the volume connect truth pluralism to these two debates The Magic of Truth
