The Hard Shapes Of Paradise:

The Hard Shapes of Paradise Paul Nelson, 1988

Milton in the Long Restoration Blair Hoxby, Ann Baynes

Coiro, 2016-07-22 Milton criticism often treats the poet as if he were the last of the Renaissance poets or a visionary prophet who remained misunderstood until he was read by the Romantics At the same time literary histories of the period often invoke a Long Eighteenth Century that reaches its climax with the French Revolution or the Reform Bill of 1832 What gets overlooked in such accounts is the rich story of Milton's relationship to his contemporaries and early eighteenth century heirs The essays in this collection demonstrate that some of Milton's earliest readers were more perceptive than Romantic and twentieth century interpreters The translations editions and commentaries produced by early eighteenth century men of letters emerge as the seedbed of modern criticism and the term neoclassical is itself unmasked as an inadequate characterization of the literary criticism and poetry of the period a period that could brilliantly define a Miltonic sublime even as it supported and described all the varieties of parody and domestication found in the mock epic and the novel These essays which are written by a team of leading Miltonists and scholars of the Restoration and eighteenth century cover a range of topics from Milton's early editors and translators to his first theatrical producers from Miltonic similes in Pope's Iliad to Miltonic echoes in Austen's Pride and Prejudice from marriage to slavery to republicanism to the heresy of Arianism What they share in common is a conviction that the early eighteenth century understood Milton and that the Long Restoration cannot be understood without him

The Wordsworth Dictionary of Quotations Connie Robertson, 1998 Quotations have exercised a particular fascination for humanity since the birth of recorded language and their potency in the age of the soundbite is stronger than ever We revel in quotations compete to know them love them hate them and inscribe them in books and on buildings and this freshly revised and updated dictionary includes a wealth of new material among its 13 000 familiar serious outrageous witty and thought provoking entries The Wordsworth Dictionary of Quotations is an essential work of reference for every writer journalist and speech maker as well as being a treasure trove for the browser and the simply curious From the Roman poet Ovid's observation that Judgement of beauty can er what with the wine and the dark to Oscar Wilde's that Experience is the name everyone gives to their mistakes there is a wide diversity of sayings to add spice to our conversation and enrich our daily lives The book is alphabetically arranged by author and indexed by keyword for ease of use

The Shape of a Life Shing-Tung Yau, Steven J. Nadis, 2019-01-01 A Fields medalist recounts his lifelong transnational effort to uncover the geometric shape the Calabi Yau manifold that may store the hidden dimensions of our universe Harvard geometer and Fields medalist Shing Tung Yau has provided a mathematical foundation for string theory offered new insights into black holes and mathematically demonstrated the stability of our universe In this autobiography Yau reflects on his improbable journey to becoming one of the world's most distinguished mathematicians Beginning with an impoverished childhood in China and Hong Kong Yau takes readers through his doctoral studies at Berkeley during the height of the Vietnam War protests his Fields Medal winning proof of the Calabi conjecture his return to China and his pioneering work in geometric analysis This new branch of geometry which Yau built up with his friends and colleagues has paved the way for solutions to several important and previously intransigent problems With complicated ideas explained for a broad audience this book offers readers not only insights into the life of an eminent mathematician but also an accessible way to understand advanced and highly abstract concepts in mathematics and theoretical physics

The Types of Genesis

Andrew Jukes, 2017 Mr Jukes maintains that the acts of God in the natural world and the events that spring from them are types of analogous acts and events in the spiritual world and it is the aim of his volume to draw a parallel between the creation of the earth and man and the renovation of the mind by the Spirit and to show that Adam Cain Abel Noah Abraham and others are types in their experiences and characters of the experiences and characters of men generally in the sphere of religion
