Eternal Life? Hans Kung,2003-04-07 The fact cannot be overlooked that we are in the midst of a sociological crisis of orientation on the grand scale New problems and needs have become insistent new fears and longings have come to light Many are looking for a new foothold a fundamental certainty a compass for their life and the life of other human beings The inconsistencies and ambivalence of the phenomena cannot conceal the fact that religion is attracting greater attention the old religion and many new ones the Christian religion as well as the Islamic Hindu and Buddhist religions In East and West anyway the God Progress seems to have lost rapidly something of its credibility belief in a continually better life with the aid of science and technology and also through revolution and socialism has been shaken by serious doubts And while the elderly have not been able with all the aids of psychology to come to terms with the meaning of death younger people supposedly a no future generation apathetic noncommittal nervous and self destructive are asking afresh about the missing sense of life Meanwhile though science did the most in the last century to destroy belief in immortality and made stupendous efforts to prolong life it is medicine today that has broken through the taboos in regard to death and with its research into dying has given new life to the question of death and survival But has medicine or perhaps parapsychology proved that there is life after death

Lucky Alan Jonathan Lethem,2015-02-24 The incomparable Jonathan Lethem returns with nine stories that demonstrate his mastery of the short form Jonathan Lethem s third collection of stories uncovers a father s nervous breakdown at SeaWorld in Pending Vegan a foundling child rescued from the woods during a blizzard in Traveler Home a political prisoner in a hole in a Brooklyn street in Procedure in Plain Air and a crumbling haunted blog on a seaside cliff in The Dreaming Jaw The Salivating Ear Each of these locates itself in Lethem land which can be discovered only by visiting As in his celebrated novels Lethem finds the uncanny lurking in the mundane the irrational self defeat seeping through our upstanding pursuits and the tragic undertow of the absurd world s in which we live Devoted fans of Lethem will recognize familiar themes the anxiety of influence taken to reductio ad absurdum in The King of Sentences a hapless horny outsider summoning bravado in The Porn Critic characters from forgotten comics stranded on a desert island in Their Back Pages As always in Lethem humor and poignancy work in harmony humans strive desperately for connection words find themselves misaligned to deeds and the sentences are glorious

Ernst Specker Selecta Gerhard Jäger,Hans Läuchli,Bruno Scarpellini,Volker Strassen,2012-12-06 Ernst Specker has made decisive contributions towards shaping directions in topology algebra mathematical logic combinatorics and algorithmics over the last 40 years We have derived great pleasure from marking his seventieth birthday by editing the majority of his scientific publications and thus making his work available in a unified form to the mathematical community In order to convey an idea of the richness of his personality we have also included one of his sermons Of course the publication of these Selecta can pay tribute only to the writings of Ernst Specker It cannot adequately express his originality and wisdom as a person nor the fascination he exercises over his students colleagues and friends We can do no better than to quote from Hao Wang in the Festschrift Logic and Algorithmic I Specker was ill for an extended period before completing his formal education He had the leisure to think over many things This experience may have helped cultivating his superiority as a person In terms of traditional Chinese categories I would say there is a taoist trait in him in the sense of being more detached less competitive and more understanding I believe he has a better sense of what is important in life and arranges his life better than most logicians We are grateful to Birkhäuser Verlag for the production of this Selecta volume Our special thanks go to Jonas Meon for sharing with us his intimate knowledge of his friend Ernst Specker

Manfred Pfister,1988 Manfred Pfister s book is the first to provide a coherent comprehensive framework for the analysis of plays in all their dramatic and theatrical dimensions The material on which his analysis is based covers all genres and periods His approach is systematic rather than historical combining more abstract categorisations with detailed interpretations of sample texts Transforming the Sacred into Saintliness Wolfgang Palaver,2021-02-04 Studies into religion and violence often put religion first Ren Girard started with violence in his book Violence and the Sacred and used the Durkheimian term sacred as its correlate in his study of early religions During the unfolding of his theory he more and more distinguished the sacred from saintliness to address the break that the biblical revelation represented in comparison to early religions This distinction between the sacred and saintliness resembles Henri Bergson s complementing Emile Durkheim s identification of the sacred and society with a dynamic religion that relies on individual mystics Girard s distinction also relates to the insights of thinkers like Jacques Maritain Simone Weil and Emmanuel Levinas This element explores some of Girard s main features of saintliness Girard pleaded for the transformation of the sacred into holy not their separation traditions these writers all use the figure of the antihero to question handed down assumptions to reexamine moral categories and to raise issues of survival and renewal embodying the spirit of an uneasy age
