Sporulation and Germination Hillel S. Levinson, 1981      Sporulation and Germination Hillel S. Levinson, A. L. Sonenshein, Donald J. Tipper, American Society for Microbiology, 1981 The Eighth International Spore Conference was held in Woods Hole Massachusetts on 9-12 October 1980. Within the beautiful facilities of the Marine Biological Laboratories 250 scientists from five continents gathered for intensive and informative discussions on spore-forming microorganisms. This book hopefully reflects the high caliber of the conference, the excitement generated by many of the presentations, and the extent to which the persistent and provocative questions concerning the description and control of sporulation and germination events are yielding to the application of modern molecular genetic and biochemical techniques.      Sporulation and germination, 1981      Spores, 7 International Spore Conference, 1978      GENETICS OF SPORULATION AND GERMINATION- SELECTED PAPERS FROM A SYMPOSIUM HELD DURING THE 7TH INTERNATIONAL SPORE CONFERENCE.,      Spores, 6 International Spore Conference, 1975      Spores V, 1972      Spores VI Philipp Gerhardt, Ralph N.
