Ward, 2003-11-02 Even as the 250th anniversary of its outbreak approaches the Seven Years War otherwise known as the French and Indian War is still not wholly understood Most accounts tell the story as a military struggle between British and French forces with shifting alliances of Indians culminating in the British conquest of Canada Scholarly and popular works alike including James Fennimore Cooper's Last of the Mohicans focus on the action in the Hudson River Valley and the St Lawrence Seaway Matthew C Ward tells the compelling story of the war from the point of view of the region where it actually began and whose people felt the devastating effects of war most keenly the backcountry communities of Virginia and Pennsylvania Previous wars in North America had been fought largely on the New England and New York frontiers But on May 28 1754 when a young George Washington commanded the first shot fired in western Pennsylvania fighting spread for the first time to Virginia and Pennsylvania Ward's original research reveals that on the eve of the Seven Years War the communities of these colonies were isolated economically weak and culturally diverse He shows in riveting detail how despite the British empire's triumph the war brought social chaos sickness hunger punishment and violence to the backcountry much of it at the hands of Indian warriors Ward's fresh analysis reveals that Indian raids were not random skirmishes but part of an organized strategy that included psychological warfare designed to make settlers flee Indian territories It was the awesome effectiveness of this guerilla warfare Ward argues that led to the most enduring legacies of the war Indian hating and an armed population of colonial settlers distrustful of the British empire that couldn't protect them Understanding the horrors of the Seven Years War as experienced in the backwoods thus provides unique insights into the origins of the American republic

Colorstrology, the company, is rolling out an entire line of branded products from cosmetics and jewellery to cards and flowers, but this is the only comprehensive book available by the author who New York magazine calls a must-see phenomenon. Rose Arbor Marianna Jo Arolin, 2008-02

Many years ago an 11-year-old girl, Marianna Jo, climbed up and onto a sturdy branch of a large sprawling elm tree and overlooked the Crow River that coursed through the acreage of her family's farm near Hanover, MN. This soon became a favorite spot to sit, resolve her adolescent problems, and dream of her future. Marianna Jo loved picking wildflowers as she walked through the meadow along the river to get to her secluded hideaway in the elm tree. It was in the safety of this big elm's arms that she brought her school tablet and penciled the words to her first poems. An out-of-doors girl, Marianna Jo witnessed many subjects to write about. Ordinary days, glorious sunsets, and a few falling stars were recorded in her young memory. These all come alive when she puts her pen to paper. Marianna Jo finds beauty in all four of Minnesota's ever-changing seasons. Lovely tulips and crocuses brave the crisp air in springtime, or the abundance of flowers basking in the summer sun, and the vibrant colors of tree foliage painted against the gray skies of fall. All of these subjects captured in heart-warming verse. Winter can be especially harsh in Minnesota, but Marianna Jo finds breath-taking beauty in its crystal clear ice, feathery hoar frost, and fresh fallen snow. It is her love of God, all things created by Him, and their splendor which inspires her and is reflected in the poetry she writes. Marianna Jo's first book of poetry, Here In My Garden, was published in 1999 by Watermark Press. Her works have also been published in IDEALS magazine and can be found in many anthologies and other publications. One poem special to Marianna Jo's heart, Afternoon Tea, was selected for use inside a volume of poetry by Harvest House Publishers, entitled The Art of Tea and Friendship, illustrated by Sandy Lynam Clough, and released the first time in 2003, then again in 2006. This poem was also chosen as the featured verse for the back cover of this same volume. Marianna Jo hopes you will find enjoyment in reading and re-reading her poems in Rose Arbor as much as she did in writing them.
