As the eighteenth century draws to a close, a mystic figure appears on the timeline of history whose presence is even felt today. Some call him a pirate sailing under the black flag of death. Others call him a ghost, a figment of the imagination. To those who know him, however, he is just an ordinary man who comes full circle in life. He comes to realize that life's greatest treasures are the simple pleasures and the God-given blessings that are regularly bestowed upon the children of God. He sails the west coast of Florida during some of the most turbulent times, and he aids a young nation during the political unrest of 1812. Through love, political intrigue, and adventures at sea, Jos Gaspar becomes the last of the buccaneers. Page 4 of cover The Boys of Chattahoochee: Sons of the Greatest Generation Darrell S. Mudd, The Boys of Chattahoochee: Sons of the Greatest Generation are memories recalled through the eyes of Cold War era military veterans. Tested up to and including the extremes of combat leadership in Vietnam, they were taught by one of the finest organizations in the world, the U.S. Army Infantry Officer Candidate School (OCS) at Fort Benning, Georgia. Eleven contributors placed their fingerprints upon these pages. From all parts of the USA, they came together as classmates for a period of time that 50 years later continues to arouse the most deeply felt of feelings. What some might describe as typical sons of the Greatest Generation, you, the readers, will turn the pages to stories much more than expected as told by this assembly of young American boys turned into leaders of men.
