Along the Wekiva River Jim Robison,Bill Belleville,2009 Meandering through Orange Lake and Seminole Counties this purest form of Central Florida nature as described by one of its champions is also bordered by some of the region s most densely populated suburban sprawl The Wekiva River makes up some of the best protected waters in the state with laws designed for its preservation as it is recognized as a regional jewel and a resource worth saving in public trust as parks preserves and forests Today visitors who paddle boat and hike here discover a sanctuary that seems unchanged since its earliest history when ancient tribes piled fresh water shells sand bone and pot shards to create midden mounds and when Clay Springs and other early settlements helped draw river traffic and railroads hauled out its forest products Its cooling springs have provided recreation for generation after generation Tierra y Libertad Steven W. Bender,2010-09-29 One of the quintessential goals of the American Dream is to own land and a home a place to raise one s family and prove one s prosperity Particularly for immigrant families home ownership is a way to assimilate into American culture and community However Latinos who make up the country s largest minority population have largely been unable to gain this level of inclusion Instead they are forced to cling to the fringes of property rights and ownership through overcrowded rentals transitory living arrangements and at best home acquisitions through subprime lenders In Tierra y Libertad Steven W Bender traces the history of Latinos struggle for adequate housing opportunities from the nineteenth century to today s anti immigrant policies and national mortgage crisis Spanning southwest to northeast rural to urban Bender analyzes the legal hurdles that prevent better housing opportunities and offers ways to approach sweeping legal reform Tierra y Libertad combines historical cultural legal and personal perspectives to document the Latino community s ongoing struggle to make America home Administration Reports ... ,1907 Annual Report and Collections of the State Historical Society, of Wisconsin, for the Year ... State Historical Society of Wisconsin,1857 Senate Proceedings (running Title: Journal) Wisconsin.
