School Tax Elections Don E. Lifo, Barbara Nicol, 2019-07-12 Whether it is requests for bricks and mortar or more operating money each election type and context is unique with no guarantee that a set of campaign strategies successful in one district will not fail in another community If successful campaigns were not such a delicate balance of science and art the key to success would have long since been discovered resulting in significantly more school districts winning at the ballot box As members of the baby boom generation collectively watch their last child receive a diploma from our nation s public schools passing school tax elections is going to be even more difficult promising tougher battles with the electorate and tighter margins between success and failure School Tax Elections represents a marriage of research and successful practice presenting a comprehensive planning model for school leaders preparing for and conducting school tax elections Information presented emphasizes systems and strategies rather than specific campaign tactics allowing school leaders to elevate their thinking to a more comprehensive and long range vision of election planning The authors provide school leaders with important resources to guide their planning and execution of school tax elections
