Teacher Learning In Language Teaching

Ron Howard, Gillian Brown

Teacher Learning In Language Teaching:

Teacher Learning in Language Teaching Donald Freeman, Jack C. Richards, 1996-02-23 This book introduces a new field of educational research called teacher learning as it applies to the teaching of languages Up until recently the study of second language teacher education has focused mainly on the knowledge base and specific skills needed for effective teaching This book invites us to look at teacher education from a fresh point of view through an exploration of the thinking and learning processes of individuals as they learn to teach Seventeen original articles based on studies done in North America Europe Asia and Australia provide examples of pioneering research into the ways that individuals learn to teach languages and the roles that previous experience social context and professional training play in the process The collection thus helps establish a research base for this newly developing field

Becoming a (Better) Language Teacher Nora Benitt, 2015-08-19 This qualitative interpretative study investigates a cohort of twelve English teachers enrolled in the M A programme E LINGO Teaching English to Young Learners The aim is to explore if how and under what circumstances classroom action research a core component of the programme can foster teacher learning Since the participants have different educational and cultural backgrounds and various levels of professional experience in the field of language teaching they offer different perspectives on the object of research Data from multiple sources are triangulated and interpreted to elicit indicators for learning and development in the form of critical learning incidents The results suggest that not only cognitive but also social and affective factors constitute the complex process of teacher learning

Teacher Education in CALL Philip Hubbard, Mike Levy, 2006-09-01 This volume addresses the need for a more considered and systematic approach to teacher education and training in Computer Assisted Language Learning CALL in all its forms Technology Enhanced Language Learning Network Based Language Learning Information and Communication Technologies for Language Learning and so on The 20 chapters of the book are divided into five parts 1 foundations of teacher education in CALL 2 CALL degree programs 3 CALL pre service courses 4 CALL in service projects courses and workshops 5 alternatives to formal CALL training The chapters cover a broad range of levels environments countries and languages Rather than simply offering inspired speculation the chapters provide practical information to readers reporting on what has actually been done in a wide variety of teacher education programs and courses around the world In many cases the chapters describe how programs and courses have evolved and include either qualitative or quantitative research or both to inform the structure of CALL courses tasks and activities

Teacher Education for Languages for Specific Purposes Ron Howard, Gillian Brown, 1997 This work summarizes and synthesizes the substantial crime prevention literature to provide an approachable and comprehensive text for students It sets out a critical analysis in the context of the politics of criminal justice policy researchers educators and emerging scholars Chapters address such issues as distance education non native English speaking educators technology assessment standards and the changing contexts of contemporary language teaching and teacher education Professional Development for Language Teachers Jack C. Richards, Thomas S. C.

Farrell, 2005-04-04 This much needed text provides a coherent and strategic approach to teacher development Teacher Development for Language Teachers examines ten different approaches for facilitating professional development in language teaching self monitoring support groups journal writing classroom observation teaching portfolios analysis of critical incidents case analysis peer coaching team teaching and action research The introductory chapter provides a conceptual framework All chapters contain practical examples and reflection questions to help readers apply the approach in their own teaching context Teacher Development in Technology-Enhanced Language Teaching Jeong-Bae Son, 2018-05-25 This book explores language teacher development in computer assisted language learning CALL environments and discusses approaches tasks and resources that can guide language teachers to develop their skills and strategies for technology enhanced language teaching TELT It looks at key aspects of CALL in terms of pedagogy and technology and proposes a model of CALL teacher development which incorporates essential elements of teacher learning in CALL Further the author presents practical tasks and tips on how to develop knowledge and skills for the use of digital technologies in language teaching and suggests ideas to improve language teacher training and development The Handbook of Language Teaching Michael H. Long, Catherine J. Doughty, 2011-08-15 Bringing together an international and interdisciplinary team of contributors this Handbook is a wide ranging and invaluable reference guide to language teaching A comprehensive reference work on language teaching which combines the latest research findings coverage of core topics and examples of teaching experience from a variety of languages and settings Provides a unique breadth of coverage including the psycholinguistic underpinnings of language learning social political and educational contexts program design materials writing and course design teaching and testing teacher education and assessment and evaluation Offers a balanced evaluation of the major positions and approaches including examining the increasingly important social and political context of language teaching Written by an international and interdisciplinary group of authors from a dozen different countries English is only one of the many languages used as examples throughout the volume Second Language Teacher Education

Diane J. Tedick, 2013-06-17 By bringing together research theory and best practices from a variety of contexts ESL EFL foreign language bilingual and immersion education this book contributes to building meaningful professional dialogue among second language teacher educators Language in Language Teacher Education H. R. Trappes-Lomax, Gibson Ferguson, 2002-01-01 This volume explores the defining element in the work of language teacher educators language itself The book is in two parts The first part holds up to scrutiny concepts of language that underlie much practice in language teacher education yet too frequently remain under examined These include language as social institution language as verbal practice language as reflexive practice language as school subject and language as medium of language learning The chapters in the second part are written by language teacher educators working in a range of institutional contexts and on a variety of types of program including both long and short courses both pre service and in service courses and teacher education practice focusing variously on metalinguistic awareness for teachers language improvement and classroom communication The unifying factor is that collectively they illuminate how language teacher educators research their practice and reflect on underlying principles
