Teacher Self The Practice Of Humanistic Education:

Teacher Self Jerome S. Allender, 2001 Based on Temple University's acclaimed course The Art and Science of Teaching Allender draws the student teacher into a series of narratives that develop as scenes from a play As the drama unfolds the reader becomes part of a classroom where the teacher's strategy shifts from speaking to listening and where students teach and the teacher learns The book demonstrates how to create a vital lively learning environment in which everyone involved can expect to be interactive spontaneous and effective International Handbook of Self-Study of Teaching and Teacher Education Practices J. John Loughran, Mary Lynn Hamilton, Vicki Kubler LaBoskey, Tom L. Russell, 2007-07-03 The International Handbook on Self study of Teaching and Teacher Education Practices is of interest to teacher educators teacher researchers and practitioner researchers This volume offers an encyclopaedic review of the field of self study examines in detail self study in a range of teaching and teacher education contexts outlines a full understanding of the nature and development of self study explores the development of a professional knowledge base for teaching through self study purposefully represents self study through research and practice illustrates examples of self study in teaching and teacher education Developing a Pedagogy of Teacher Education John Loughran, 2013-01-11 A pedagogy of teacher education must go well beyond the simple delivery of information about teaching This book describes and explores the complex nature of teaching and of learning about teaching illustrating how important teacher educators' professional knowledge is and how that knowledge must influence teacher training practices The book is divided into two sections The first considers the crucial distinction between teaching student teachers and teaching them about teaching allowing practice to push beyond the technical rational or tips and tricks approach to teaching about teaching in a way that brings in the appropriate attitudes knowledge and skills of teaching itself Section two highlights the dual nature of student teachers learning arguing that they need to concentrate not only on learning what is being taught but also on the way in which that teaching is conducted

Improving Teacher Education Practice Through Self-study John Loughran, Tom Russell, 2004-11-23 Self study in teacher education is a growing field and a natural progression from the concept of reflective practice for pre service teachers This book is designed to introduce teacher educators to the theory and practice of self study in order to explore understand and improve their teaching about teaching With studies from an international range of contributors this book illustrates a variety of approaches to self study It describes the issues that teacher educators have chosen to study how they carried out their research and what the learning outcomes were Throughout the emphasis is on placing teacher educators' knowledge and practice at the centre of their academic work This book will be of interest to all teacher educators wishing to improve their knowledge and practice From Teacher Thinking to Teachers and Teaching Cheryl J. Craig, Paulien C. Meijer, Jan Broeckmans, 2013-07-04 This volume covers advances that have occurred in the thirty year existence of the International Study Association on Teachers and Teaching ISATT the organization that helped transition the study of teacher thinking to the study of teachers and teaching in all of its complexities Handbook for Teaching Reflectively in Grades K-12 William Reed Martin, Jason J. Majesky, Kay Eckler, 2003 This useful handbook will assist beginning and experienced teachers by helping them build on their ability to think and act reflectively in the classroom The book focuses on the following three areas planning delivering instruction to a diverse student body and managing and disciplining in today s classrooms Features Useful lists points and ideas for self direction on reflective teaching in the big three areas Conversational style information with a touch of humor and metaphor from the world of sports Real journal entries from pre service and on the job teachers Formats and graphics A glossary providing vocabulary on reflective practices Eight useful appendices to assist reflective teaching and thinking Handbook for Teaching Reflectively in Grades K 12 will provide the novice and expert educator in teaching a legitimate way of approaching their work through a reflective teaching model This model will assist the novice teacher in developing their own reflective model while assisting the experienced teacher in modifying or adding to their present best practice Critical Perspectives on the Curriculum of Teacher Education Thomas Stewart

Poetter, Thomas Lee Goodney, Jennifer Lynne Bird, 2004 Critical Perspectives on the Curriculum of Teacher Education is a collection of papers written by students in a widely recognized doctoral program in curriculum and educational leadership The editors have compiled these papers to discuss key ideas and present new possibilities for teachers in terms of formal and informal curriculum interventions This book will challenge readers to rethink long standing assumptions that pass for conventional wisdom in the field Teacher Professional Development in Changing Conditions Douwe Beijaard, Pauline C.

Meijer, Greta Morine-Dershimer, Tillem Harm, 2005-12-12 This book presents some highlights from the deliberations of the 2003 conference of the International Study Association on Teachers and Teaching ISATT Part 1 presents the five keynote addresses of the conference while Parts 2 through 4 present selected papers related to each of three sub themes knowledge construction and learning to teach perspectives on teachers personal and professional lives and teachers workplace as context for learning The chapters in this book provide an array of approaches to understanding the process of teacher learning within the current context of the changing workplace environment They also provide an important international perspective on the complex issues revolving around the international educational reform movement Basically they show how teachers workplace inside and outside schools are more than ever subject to continuous change and that subsequently standards for teaching must be flexible to these changing conditions This asks for a redefinition of teacher professionalism in which the role of context in teacher learning is emphasized as well as the improvement of the quality of teacher thinking and learning Related to the ever changing context of teaching a dynamic approach to teaching and teacher learning is required in which identity development is crucial Researchers have an important role to play in revealing and explaining how teachers can build their professional identity through self awareness and reflection in the ever changing educational contexts throughout the world Teaching and Learning from Within Fred A. J. Korthagen, Younghee M. Kim, William L.

Greene,2013 This book brings together theory research and practice on core reflection an approach that focuses on people s strengths as the springboard for personal growth and links theory and practice by highlighting the experience of the person

What Difference Does Research Make and for Whom? Françoise M. Bodone,2005 Education is a discipline that is constantly emerging and for which there are more questions than answers Beyond the research reports the articles in refereed journals and the well crafted presentations what is happening in education What difference does our work make in the lives of those we research How is education as a whole different because of our effort And what is the nature of the difference we make This book provides some answers to those questions based on engaged and critical research from around the world It is also a critical reflection on new possibilities for qualitative research its implications and relevance to educational practice Andrew Hargreaves Enora Brown Graham Hingagaroa Smith Jack Whitehead Mutindi Mumbua Andrew Gitlin Phil Carspecken and others invite readers to join the conversation and take it beyond these pages by enriching and extending the discourse within their communities of practice
