Teachers Pupils And The Internet:

Teachers, Pupils and the Internet Una Cunningham,Una Cunningham-Andersson,Staffan Andersson,1999 Addressing over 30 subject areas this book introduces teachers to the Internet and its uses in the educational setting The book explains what the Internet is issues surrounding its use in schools and how teachers and pupils can benefit from it Teaching in the Digital Age Kristen Nelson,2008 An excellent resource that gives teachers both novice and veteran ideas on how to integrate technology into the classroom even if the teacher is a regular user This second edition will become a good friend for those who want to use the Internet in their teachings Amie Brown Reading and Language Arts TeacherCoosa Middle School Rome GA Through technology students can learn using tools they are comfortable with and that will help them develop skills for greater productivity in a global society With theory from this book teachers can model Internet activities for creativity and engaged learning for higher student achievement Beverly R Plein Technology FacilitatorBenjamin Franklin Middle School Teaneck NJ Connect brain compatible learning with the Internet to encourage active student involvement In Teaching in the Digital Age Second Edition Kristen Nelson illustrates how teaching and learning are strengthened when Web resources are integrated with brain based instruction to meet students individual learning needs The author supplies the tools and framework for using Internet based brain friendly activities to promote students comprehension across content areas This practical how to book demonstrates how teachers can design their own projects to enhance information literacy while deepening students understanding of critical concepts and skills Offering an updated list of Web sites the second edition assists educators by providing Internet assignments to develop skills in interpersonal exchange information gathering and analysis and problem solving Standards based lesson plans that build on student strengths Assessment rubrics to identify learning needs This text is an invaluable handbook that combines educational theory instructional practice digital literacy and current brain based research to encourage student engagement and increase achievement for all learners

NetLearning Ferdi Serim,Melissa Koch,1996 In this book NetAngels Internet users exploring the Internet s potential for education share stories to help teachers uncover the benefits of using this medium to its fullest potential in the classroom The stories take the reader through the use of tools from a teacher s perspective and provide tips on how to effectively integrate the tools and resources into the classroom Bringing the Internet to School Janet Ward Schofield,Ann Locke Davidson,2002-03-05 Presenting the results of the first major study of technology implementation in schools examining the positive and negative consequences of the Internet on equity academics and social life the authors draw on over 300 interviews with teachers students and administrators done over the course of five years and offer an assessment of the underlying cultural issues that will ultimately determine the speed and success of technology integration The Internet and the Language Classroom Gavin Dudeney,2007-03-08 The fully updated edition of this popular book offers a wealth of ideas for using the Internet as a teaching tool Learning from Cyber-Savvy Students Anne Hird,2023-07-21 As the Internet has become a common household utility more and more students are coming to school with Internet experience How do students and teachers roles and schools as institutions change when these Internet Age kids enter classrooms that are fully equipped with networked computers This book offers a unique analysis of the issues and challenges teachers face as their classrooms become fully connected to the Internet Anne Hird spent six months observing a class in a school with fully connected classrooms She presents a vivid and insightful account often reported through the students own words of how young teens use computers in and out of school how they perceive the world shaped by the Internet and how these factors shape their expectations for classroom learning She observes and reflects on the paradox which confronts teachers in this environment They are expected to guide students in learning with a cognitive tool that was not part of the teachers experience as students while students familiarity with the Internet calls into question the authority of the teacher on which the traditional teacher student relationship is based She offers a strategy for professional development which recognizes and builds on this inevitable shift in the teacher student relationship This is an absorbing thought provoking and practical book for all educators individual teachers and administrators alike concerned about the integration of computer technology into elementary and secondary school classrooms The Internet and the Law Kathleen Conn,2002 This book offers concise and sound advice for guide public school polices governing uses of the Web e mail and other computer technologies

Plagiarism, the Internet, and Student Learning Wendy Sutherland-Smith,2008-04-24 Written for Higher Education educators managers and policy makers Plagiarism the Internet and Student Learning combines theoretical understandings with a practical model of plagiarism and aims to explain why and how plagiarism developed It offers a new way to conceptualize plagiarism and provides a framework for professionals dealing with plagiarism in higher education Sutherland Smith presents a model of plagiarism called the plagiarism continuum which usefully informs discussion and direction of plagiarism management in most educational settings The model was developed from a cross disciplinary examination of plagiarism with a particular focus on understanding how educators and students perceive and respond to issues of plagiarism The evolution of plagiarism from its birth in Law to a global issue poses challenges to international educators in diverse cultural settings The case studies included are the voices of educators and students discussing the complexity of plagiarism in policy and practice as well as the tensions between institutional and individual responses A review of international studies plus qualitative empirical research on plagiarism conducted in Australia between 2004 2006 explain why it has emerged as a major issue The book examines current teaching approaches in light of issues surrounding plagiarism particularly Internet plagiarism The model affords insight into ways in which teaching and learning approaches can be enhanced to cope with the ever changing face of plagiarism This book challenges Higher Education educators managers and policy makers to examine their own beliefs and practices in managing the phenomenon of plagiarism in academic writing The Internet and Rural Development in China Jinqiu Zhao,2008 Despite its low penetration in China s vast rural areas the Internet is generally perceived as a new engine for rural empowerment By examining five Internet application initiatives in rural China this book offers a unique view of the diffusion and usage of the Internet and its implications on the lives of rural people Placed in the political socioeconomic and infrastructure contexts of rural China the book departs from the classical diffusion of innovations model and extends the existing knowledge on the adoption and usage of the Internet by rural people In addition to testing the applicability of the diffusion of innovations theory to the diffusion of Information and Communications Technologies in the rural areas today the study provides rich empirical evidence regarding the actual impact of the Internet on the livelihood of rural people It also shows some innovative uses of the Internet in rural development The Internet in School Duncan Grey,2001-06-01 Written in a non threatening and nontechnical style this guide examines both the pitfalls and the opportunities of Internet use in schools The author discusses techniques for use in the classroom such as exercises and activities in the core subjects valuable curriculum links obstacles encountered such as the variable content of Web sites what is needed in order to get connected the use of intranets how to publish information on the net
