Handbook of Research on Teaching Literacy Through the Communicative and Visual Arts James Flood, Diane Lapp, Shirley Brice Heath, 2004-09-22 In an era characterized by the rapid evolution of the concept of literacy the Handbook of Research on Teaching Literacy Through the Communicative and Visual Arts focuses on multiple ways in which learners gain access to knowledge and skills The handbook explores the possibilities of broadening current conceptualizations of literacy to include the full array of the communicative arts reading writing speaking listening viewing and to focus on the visual arts of drama dance film art video and computer technology The communicative and visual arts encompass everything from novels and theatrical performances to movies and video games In today s world new methods for transmitting information have been developed that include music graphics sound effects smells and animations While these methods have been used by television shows and multimedia products they often represent an unexplored resource in the field of education By broadening our uses of these media formats and genres a greater number of students will be motivated to see themselves as learners In 64 chapters organized in seven sections teachers and other leading authorities in the field of literacy provide direction for the future I Theoretical Bases for Communicative and Visual Arts Teaching Paul Messaris Section Editor II Methods of Inquiry in Communicative and Visual Arts Teaching Donna Alvermann Section Editor III Research on Language Learners in Families Communities and Classrooms Vicki Chou Section Editor IV Research on Language Teachers Conditions and Contexts Dorothy Strickland Section Editor V Expanding Instructional Environments Teaching Learning and Assessing the Communicative and Visual Arts Nancy Roser Section Editor VI Research Perspectives on the Curricular Extracurricular and Policy Perspectives James Squire Section Editor VII Voices from the Field Bernice Cullinan and Lee Galda Section Editors The International Reading Association has compiled in the Handbook of Research on Teaching Literacy Through the Communicative and Visual Arts an indispensable set of papers for educators that will enable them to conceptualize literacy in much broader contexts than ever before The information contained in this volume will be extremely useful in planning literacy programs for our students for today and tomorrow Professionalizing Your English Language Teaching Christine Coombe, Neil J Anderson, Lauren Stephenson, 2020-10-22 Written by leading experts in the field of TESOL this book explores the literature on various topic areas and demonstrates how teachers can increase their levels of professionalism by acquiring some general and field specific strategies Being a teaching professional is not simply about having the right teaching qualifications and good academic standing it involves a commitment to being innovative and transformative in the classroom and helping both students and colleagues achieve their goals A dictionary definition of professionalism reads as follows professionalism is the conduct aims or qualities that characterize or mark a profession or a professional person and it defines a profession as a calling requiring specialized knowledge and often long and intensive academic preparation Merriam Webster 2013 However according to Bowman 2013 professionalism is less a matter of what professionals actually do and more a matter of who they are as human beings Both of these views imply that professionalism encompasses a number of different attributes and together these attributes identify and define a professional The book is primarily intended for teachers at all levels and in all contexts who are interested in improving their professionalism and developing strategies that can take them to higher levels in the field of TESOL ELT Proceedings of IAC in Vienna 2019 Group of Authors, 2019-11-28 International Academic Conference on Global Education Teaching and Learning International Academic Conference on Management Economics Business and Marketing International Academic Conference on Transport Logistics Tourism and Sport Science Handbook of Reading Research Michael L. Kamil, Peter B. Mosenthal, P. David Pearson, Rebecca Barr, 2014-04-08 In Volume III as in Volumes I and II the classic topics of reading are included from vocabulary and comprehension to reading instruction in the classroom and in addition each contributor was asked to include a brief history that chronicles the legacies within each of the volume s many topics However on the whole Volume III is not about tradition Rather it explores the verges of reading research between the time Volume II was published in 1991 and the research conducted after this date The editors identified two broad themes as representing the myriad of verges that have emerged since Volumes I and II were published 1 broadening the definition of reading and 2 broadening the reading research program The particulars of these new themes and topics are addressed Evaluating Electronic Portfolios in Teacher Education Pete Adamy, Natalie B. Milman, 2009-03-01 While Research on the effectiveness of electronic portfolios for assessment and accreditation is emerging many who are now using or who are beginning to use electronic portfolios are looking to justify the cost and effort involved The purposes of this volume are to create an in depth portrait of ways in which electronic portfolios efforts can be evaluated effectively and to provide xamples of e folio evaluation in the form of case studies The intention of these chapters is to serve as models for assessment and evaluation of electronic portfolios in teacher education as well as to spark further investigations on this tool that is ecoming ubiquitous in so many SCDE s across the United States and abroad The Handbook of TESOL in K-12 Luciana C. de Oliveira, 2019-06-10 The first handbook to explore the field of Teaching English to
