The Eastern Before Beeching John Brodribb, 1994 The Eastern, Yesterday and Today Geoffrey Freeman Allen, 1982 The Great Eastern Railway - From the Grouping to the Elizabeth Line 1923-2023 Charles Phillips, 2025-03-06

Explores the transformation of the Great Eastern Section from a backwater to a modernized railway hub from 1923 to 2023 This book is the sequel to the author's two previous volumes on the history of the Great Eastern covering the Early Years from 1811 to 1862 and the Late 19th Century and early 20th Century from 1862 to 1924 This book covers the years 1923 to 2023 describes how the Great Eastern Section of the London and North Eastern Railway was transformed from being something of a backwater during the inter war years to being very much at the forefront of modernisation under British Railways Within the book will be found how the Great Eastern Section coped with the threat of road competition during the inter war years its involvement in the Second World War and how under British Railways it came to be seen the epitome of modernisation beginning with the arrival of the Britannia Class locomotives in 1951 and culminating the complete elimination of steam power in the East of England at the end of 1963 The book describes the impact of the Beeching Report on the former Great Eastern It chronicles the progress of the Section's through the electrification of its two main lines and the construction and opening of the Elizabeth Line Preservation is also mentioned as are possible future developments It is a book for anyone who is interested in the history of the railways of the East of England railways in general and the history of the East of England The Railway Magazine, 2006 Dr Beeching's Axe 50 Years On Julian Holland, 2013-09-27 Julian Holland's Dr Beeching's Axe 50 Years On is a unique memorial to all that was lost following the publication of the Beeching Report on 27 March 1963 Uniquely the author has tried to include every railway line that was closed as a result of the Beeching Report and more They are all shown on Map 9 in Part 2 of the Report and have been annotated for clarity at the beginning of each regional chapter in the book Needless to say it is not plain sailing there are lines that were marked for closure on the maps but were closed before publication of the Report there are lines that were not originally on Beeching's original hit list but which were closed anyway there are lines that were originally marked down for closure but which were fortunately reprieved There are even one or two which seem to have not existed at all The author has included them all A Life on the Lines R H N Hardy, 2012-12-03 During much of his early career from 1944 through to the early 1960s Richard Hardy took hundreds of pictures of life on the railways and the men he knew and worked with on a daily basis using his trusty Brownie 620 box camera These unique and largely unpublished images form a fascinating and hugely evocative portrayal of the height of the steam era during the age of the Big Four and after 1947 on the sprawling nationalised network known as British Railways Many of the pictures capture the railways in wartime providing a valuable social record of the nation at war In addition there is a sequence of rare photographs of French engines railways and railwaymen which offer a superb contrast to the British rail network it quickly becomes evident that whereas the British rail system ran on tea the French system ran on wine Great characters are the unifying theme of the pictures and they include famous figures associated with the railways such as the poet John Betjeman This lavishly illustrated book sets Richard's personal photographs and text alongside a carefully collated selection of ephemera artworks and photographs drawn from the National Railway Museum in York Collectively these images and artefacts tell the stories of the great brotherhood of railwaymen

Hartford's Ann Plato and the Native Borders of Identity Ron Welburn, 2015-04-21 Who was Ann Plato Apart from circumstantial evidence there's little information about the author of Essays Including Biographies and Miscellaneous Pieces in Prose and Poetry published in 1841 Plato lived in a milieu of colored Hartford Connecticut in the early nineteenth century Although long believed to have been African American herself she may also Ron Welburn argues have been American Indian like the father in her poem The Natives of America Combining literary criticism ethnohistory and social history Welburn uses Plato as an example of how Indians in the Long Island Sound region adapted and prevailed despite the contemporary rhetoric of Indian disappearance This study seeks to raise Plato's profile as an author as well as to highlight the dynamics of Indian resistance and isolation that have contributed to her enigmatic status as a literary figure

The Minor Railways of East Anglia Rob Shorland-Ball, 2020-10-19 A look at the minor railways in eastern England that were once busy transport links and made vital contributions to the social and business heritage Rob Shorland Ball is a former teacher and a born storyteller and so is well aware of the strong local loyalties in East Anglia Norfolk Suffolk and Essex are considered to be very different separate and independent areas by their inhabitants When the author worked in Suffolk he explained that he came from Cambridge which he believed was the front door of East Anglia An elderly Suffolk man to whom he was speaking paused for a while and then said with unarguable finality Here in Suffolk if Cambridge exists at all it is a back door and rarely used By the 1950s and 60s when the author explored the minor railways illustrated in this book they were rarely used so needed to be recorded and their stories told before they were forgotten entirely To bring this book up to date the final section is called Destiny because some of the track beds have survived and flourished with new usage as restored heritage railways footpaths and cycleways and one route as a busy busway A nostalgic look back at long forgotten minor railways in East Anglia Highly recommended Branch Line Light Railway Publications Flyer A brief history of each of the lines together with maps and period photographs that make this an interesting read for those unfamiliar with the minor railways of East Anglia Great Eastern Railway Society Newsletter

British Railways 1948-73 T. R. Gourvish, N. Blake, 1986 Originally published in 1986 this is a business history of the first twenty five years of nationalised railways in Britain Commissioned by the British Railways Board and based on the Board's extensive archives it fully analyses the dynamics of nationalised industry management and the complexities of the vital relationship with government After exploring the origins of nationalisation the book deals with the organisation financial performance investment and commercial policies of the British Transport Commission 1948-2 Railway Executive 1948-53 and British Railways Board 1963-73 Calculations of profit and loss investment and productivity are provided on a consistent basis for 1948-73. This business history thus represents a major contribution not only to the debate about the role of the railways in a modern economy but also to that concerning the nationalised industries which have proved to be one of the most enduring problems of the British economy since the war.
