and Masaru Hagen that is far from the truth Confronted by something that neither of them can explain two complete strangers from opposite sides of the world embark on an unforgettable journey that will forge them into living legends It has been almost 4 000 years since magic disappeared from the Earth Hidden from humanity by the Veil those who possess magic live in ancient settlements across the globe Over the centuries these beings have pierced the Veil leaving behind glimpses and shadows of the fantastic and arcane Fueled by distant memories and humanity s desire for wonder familiar stories of myths and legends have been passed down for thousands of years in nearly every culture and nation Jeremy Goodson an average overweight teacher in New York City finds his entire world turned upside down when a stranger tempts him to leave everything behind and start a journey that will test Jeremy s mysterious gift and bring magic and hope back to humanity Masaru Hagen the adopted son of American tech entrepreneurs living in Tokyo has been guided by an unseen voice all his life On the eve of his twentieth birthday the voice leads him across thousands of miles on a mysterious and perilous mission he alone can undertake But there are principalities of this world that will do whatever they can to stop Jeremy and Masaru and keep magic out of the hands of humanity forever One of these men will bring hope to the world the other will bring death The world they once knew will be changed forever not only for themselves but for everyone on Earth and maybe not for the best

The Adventure of Fitz Michael Lee W Crossland,2017-04-12 In the late ninth century the Vikings have entered Irish waters and also the Isle of Man Plunged into a cylindrical tower by the late abbot Father Daniel Fitz Michael Ghabron is chosen to escape off the isle with the last remaining relic of the monastery belonging to St Columba After following a mysterious angelic voice Fitz finds himself in an unknown cave belonging to a Scottish hermit who belongs to the sacred order of monks called the Samhadi Paidraig The two monastic warriors decide to seek out revenge on the pillaging Norsemen who have sacked their monastery called Patrick The adventure to take the relic of the saint to the High King of Tara is sidetracked with a new and divine purpose and also with a divine ax inherited by the Irish from Inuit Eskimo hunters The two monastic warriors find themselves in faraway lands belonging to the Viking Pict and Micmac warriors that Fitz calls the children of God

The Queen's Tale DJ Birmingham,2007-12-26 The struggle for the survival of Ireland in the 14th Century An Irish friar scribes the tale of an ancient Irish Queen whose tormented soul is imprisoned in a second century Gaelic brooch The Golden Harp The demonic destruction spread by the evil queens spirit will lead to the death of one of every three individuals in Ireland in the early 14th Century The Queens Tale chronicles the journey of the brooch as it travels from Ireland into England then to Scotland and back again into Ireland leaving a trail of death and destruction Two individuals vie for the right to possess the brooch believing it to be a sacred relic of St Patricks that will protect the one who wears it from all danger John de Bermingham the second son of an Irish baron is first to wear the brooch He is obsessed with winning an earldom and becoming the English kings justiciar of Ireland Despite being betrothed to one of the earl of Ulsters daughters he rescues and falls in love with an Irish princess deemed unsuitable Three times he will regain possession of the brooch

Only a sacred rosary given to him by a mysterious Italian Franciscan friar protects his life Unknown to John he can defeat the ancient evil in the brooch if he is able to pass four preordained tests in his journey of life The first is a test of devotion where he bestows the brooch to an unattainable love The second is a test of obedience where he must give up the brooch to a weak king For the third test he must decline to become a king In the fourth and final test he of Anglo Norman heritage must become more Irish than the native Irish and unselfishly give up his life for the undeserving king The second to control possession of the brooch is Edward II King of England He is weak and easily manipulated by false friends seeking only wealth and power He would rather thatch and dig ditches than be king Married to Isabella of France he prefers the couch of his male lovers to her He gives the brooch to three of his favorites who die violently He leads England into civil war and the loss of Scotland Only after being imprisoned by his queen and her lover and forced to abdicate does he grasp and repent his folly After defeating the English at the battle of Bannockburn the Scottish King Robert the Bruce gives permission to his younger brother Edward to invade and conquer Ireland Edward Bruce leads his army of seasoned Scots into Ireland wearing the Golden Harp Brooch He had taken it from the slain body of Edward IIs favorite nephew at Bannockburn After three years of Bruces terror and defeat of defending armies John de Bermingham steps forward to lead the Anglo Norman militias of Ireland into the final battle against the never defeated Bruce whom the native Irish had crowned High King of all Ireland The historical novel is based on actual historical events and individuals Only the motivations and inner feelings of the main characters are based on the authors imagination Of the twenty four characters in the novel only four are fictional The opening sequence of the novel starts with a monologue given by the novels narrator an Irish Dominican monk from Athenry County Galway Grey Friars Church London 1528 A D An Irish Friar speaks Have I gone mad For the past two days I Seamus Cassidy a lowly Dominican priest have been conversing non stop in Gaelic with the devil I am upset and fearful as to why this evil spirit from the depths of hell has chosen to disclose to me an incredible tale which reveals some of the darkest secrets of the fourteenth century Was the King of England brutally murdered in 1327 Or did the much maligned Edward II escape his intended murders flee into Ireland and then later live hidden for the rest of his natural life in Italy I now possess all the knowledge I need to know to lay
