The Man Who Invented Genocide:

The Man who Invented "genocide" James Joseph Martin, 1984 The Origins of Genocide Dominik J. Schaller, Jürgen Zimmerer, 2013-09-13 This year the United Nations celebrated the Convention on the Prevention and Punishment of the Crime of Genocide adopted in December 1948 It is time to recognize the man behind this landmark in international law At the beginning were a few words New conceptions require new terms By genocide we mean the destruction of a nation or of an ethnic group Rarely in history have paradigmatic changes in scholarship been brought about with such few words Putting the quintessential crime of modernity in only one sentence Raphael Lemkin 1900 1959 the Polish Jewish specialist in international law not only summarized the horrors of the National Socialist Crimes which were still underway when he coined the term genocide in 1944 but also influenced international law As the founding figure of the UN Genocide Convention Lemkin is finally getting the respect he deserves Less known is his contribution to historical scholarship on genocide Until his death Lemkin was working on a broad study on genocides in the history of humankind Unfortunately he did not manage to publish it The contributions in this book offer for the first time a critical assessment not only of his influence on international law but also on historical analysis of mass murders showing the close connection between both This book was published as a special issue of the Journal of Genocide Research Raphael Lemkin and the Struggle for the Genocide Convention J. Cooper, 2008-01-17 This book is the first complete biography of Raphael Lemkin the father of the United Nations Genocide Convention based on his papers and shows how his campaign for an international treaty succeeded In addition the book covers Lemkin's inauguration of the historical study of past genocides Colonialism and Genocide Dirk Moses, Dan Stone, 2013-09-13 Previously published as a special issue of Patterns of Prejudice this is the first book to link colonialism and genocide in a systematic way in the context of world history It fills a significant gap in the current understanding on genocide and the Holocaust which sees them overwhelmingly as twentieth century phenomena This book publishes Lemkin's account of the genocide of the Aboriginal Tasmanians for the first time and chapters cover the exterminatory rhetoric of racist discourses before the scientific racism of the mid nineteenth century Charles Darwin's preoccupation with the extinction of peoples in the face of European colonialism a reconstruction of a virtually unknown case of subaltern genocide global perspective on the links between modernity and the Holocaust Social theorists and historians alike will find this a must read The Dawn of a Discipline Frédéric Mégret, Immi Tallgren, 2020-09-24 The history of international criminal justice is often recounted as a series of institutional innovations But international criminal justice is also the product of intellectual developments made in its infancy This book examines the contributions of a dozen key figures in the early phase of international criminal justice focusing principally on the inter war years up to Nuremberg Where did these figures come from what did they have in common and what is left of their legacy What did they leave out How was international criminal justice framed by the concerns of their epoch and what intuitions have passed the test of time What does it mean to reimagine international criminal justice as emanating from individual intellectual narratives In interrogating this past in all its complexity one does not only do justice to it one can recover a sense of the manifold trajectories that international criminal justice could have taken A Most Uncertain Crusade Rowland Brucken,2013-12-01 A Most Uncertain Crusade traces and analyzes the emergence of human rights as both an international concern and as a controversial domestic issue for US policy makers during and after World War II Rowland Brucken focuses on officials in the State Department at the United Nations and within certain domestic non governmental organizations and explains why after issuing wartime declarations that called for the definition and enforcement of international human rights standards the US government refused to ratify the first UN treaties that fulfilled those twin purposes The Truman and Eisenhower administrations worked to weaken the scope and enforcement mechanisms of early human rights agreements and gradually withdrew support for Senate ratification A small but influential group of isolationist oriented senators led by John Bricker R OH warned that the treaties would bring about socialism destroy white supremacy and eviscerate the Bill of Rights At the UN a growing bloc of developing nations demanded the inclusion of economic guarantees support for decolonization and strong enforcement measures all of which Washington opposed Prior to World War II international law considered the protection of individual rights to fall largely under the jurisdiction of national governments Alarmed by fascist tyranny and guided by a Wilsonian vision of global cooperation in pursuit of human rights President Roosevelt issued the Four Freedoms and the Atlantic Charter Behind the scenes the State Department planners carefully considered how an international organization could best protect those guarantees Their work paid off at the 1945 San Francisco Conference which vested the UN with an unprecedented opportunity to define and protect the human rights of individuals After two years of negotiations the UN General Assembly unanimously approved its first human rights treaty the Genocide Convention The UN Commission on Human Rights UNCHR led by Eleanor Roosevelt drafted the nonbinding Universal Declaration of Human Rights in 1948 Subsequent efforts to craft an enforceable covenant of individual rights though bogged down quickly A deadlock occurred as western nations communist states and developing countries disagreed on the inclusion of economic and social guarantees the right of self determination and plans for implementation Meanwhile a coalition of groups within the United States doubted the wisdom of American accession to any human rights treaties Led by the American Bar Association and Senator Bricker opponents proclaimed that ratification would lead to a U N led tyrannical world socialistic government The backlash caused President Eisenhower to withdraw from the covenant drafting process Brucken shows how the American human rights policy had come full circle Eisenhower like Roosevelt issued statements that merely celebrated western values of freedom and democracy criticized human rights records of other countries while at the same time postponed efforts to have the UN codify and enforce a list of binding rights due in part to America s own human rights violations The Soviet Union and the Gutting of the UN Genocide Convention Anton Weiss-Wendt,2017-07-25 How both the Soviet Union and the United States

manipulated and weakened the drafting of the United Nations Genocide Convention treaty in the midst of the Cold War

"A Problem from Hell" Samantha Power, 2013-05-14 From former UN Ambassador and author of the New York Times bestseller The Education of an Idealist Samantha Power the Pulitzer Prize winning book on America's repeated failure to stop genocides around the world In her prizewinning examination of the last century of American history Samantha Power asks the haunting question Why do American leaders who vow never again repeatedly fail to stop genocide Power a professor at the Harvard Kennedy School and the former US Ambassador to the United Nations draws upon exclusive interviews with Washington's top policymakers thousands of declassified documents and her own reporting from modern killing fields to provide the answer A Problem from Hell shows how decent Americans inside and outside government refused to get involved despite chilling warnings and tells the stories of the courageous Americans who risked their careers and lives in an effort to get the United States to act A modern classic and an angry brilliant fiercely useful absolutely essential book New Republic A Problem from Hell has forever reshaped debates about American foreign policy Winner of the Pulitzer Prize Winner of the Robert F Kennedy Book Award Winner of the National Book Critics Circle Award Winner of the J Anthony Lukas Book Prize Winner of the Anisfield Wolf Book Award Winner of the Raphael Lemkin Award Unhappy the Land Liam

Kennedy, 2015-10-26 In Unhappy the Land Liam Kennedy poses fundamental questions about the social and political history of Ireland and challenges cherished notions of a uniquely painful past Images of tragedy and victimhood are deeply embedded in the national consciousness yet when the Irish experience is viewed in the larger European context a different perspective emerges The author's dissection of some pivotal episodes in Irish history serves to explode commonplace assumptions about oppression victimhood and a fate said to be comparable only to that of the Jews Was the catastrophe of the Great Famine really an Irish Holocaust Was the Ulster Covenant anything other than a battle cry for ethnic conflict Was the Proclamation of the Irish Republic a means of texting terror And who fears to speak of an Irish War of Independence shorn of its heroic pretensions Kennedy argues that the privileging of the gun the drum and the flag above social concerns and individual liberties gave rise to disastrous consequences for generations of Irish people Ireland might well be a land of heroes from C Chulainn to Michael Collins but it is also worth pondering Bertolt Brecht's warning Unhappy the land that is in need of heroes Reforging a Forgotten History Sargon Donabed, 2015-02-27 Traces the dynamic history of Iraq in the 20th century and reinserts the modern remnants of these peoples into its day to day concerns
