Understanding System Change in Child Protection and Welfare John Canavan,Carmel Devaney,Caroline McGregor,Aileen Shaw,2021-11-29 This book

provides an account of the experience of a multifaceted system change programme to strengthen the capacity of Ireland's statutory child protection and welfare agency in the areas of prevention early intervention and family support. Many jurisdictions globally are involved in system change processes focused on increasing investment in services that seek to prevent children's entry into child protection and welfare systems through early intervention greater support to families and an increased emphasis on rights and participation. Based on a four year in depth study by a team of University based researchers this text adds to the emerging knowledge base on developing implementing and evaluating system change in child protection and welfare. Study methodological approaches were wide ranging and involved a number of key stakeholders including children parents social workers and social care workers service managers agency leaders and policy makers. Since the change process involved an agency university partnership encompassing design technical support and evaluation the book also contributes to understandings of the potential and limits of such partnerships in the child protection and welfare field. Uniquely the book gives voice to the experience of both agency personnel and academic in the accounts provided. It will be of interest to all scholars students and practitioners in the areas of child protection and welfare.

Oxford Handbook of Child Protection Systems Jill Duerr Berrick, Neil Gilbert, Marit Skivenes, 2023. This Handbook describes the ways in which 50 countries from every continent except Antarctica have devised measures to protect children from maltreatment and exploitation. The Handbook discusses the legislative responses public administrative systems and the social service networks that governments utilize to secure children's safety. Synthesizing data from across the world the authors suggest a global typology of child protection systems for understanding the diversity of service responses.
