The Management of Terminal Malignant Disease Dame Cicely M. Saunders, 1984 Nutritional Care of the Terminally Ill Charlette R. Gallagher-Allred, 1989 Abstract This book is an authoritative and complete text on the nutritional needs of dying persons in palliative care settings The information is intended for dietitians on palliative care teams Topics include specific appropriate nutritional techniques effective counseling skills and how to participate in interdisciplinary team meetings The objective of this document is to define the roles and responsibilities of dietitians working with terminally ill patients Cicely Saunders Dame Cicely M. Saunders, 2006-01-05 A remarkable story of a personal vision and sense of calling this text provides an insight into the establishment of the hospice movement and its development world wide

Diagnosis and Treatment in Internal Medicine Patrick Davey, David Sprigings, 2018-08-30 Diagnosis and Treatment in Internal Medicine equips trainee doctors with the essential skills and core knowledge to establish a diagnosis reliably and quickly before outlining the management of the clinical condition diagnosed Organised into three sections the first provides a vital overview whilst the second focuses on common presentations and diagnoses Uniquely this new book shows readers how to turn symptoms into a list of diagnoses ordered by probability a differential diagnosis Experienced consultants who teach trainees every day demonstrate how to derive an ordered differential diagnosis how to narrow this down to a single diagnosis and if not how to live with diagnostic uncertainty The final section provides a comprehensive account of the management of system based syndromes and diseases Highly structured chapters emphasize how common conditions present how to approach a diagnosis and how to estimate prognosis treatment and its effectiveness An onus is placed on the development of crucial diagnostic skills and the ability to devise evidence based management plans quickly and accurately making this an ideal text for core medical trainees Cicely Saunders and Total Pain Joe Wood, 2024-11-30 Introduced in 1964 Cicely Saunders term total pain has come to epitomise the holistic ethos of hospice and palliative care It communicates how a dying person's pain can be a whole overwhelming experience not only physical but also psychological social and spiritual Total pain clearly summarises Saunders whole person multidisciplinary outlook but is it a phenomenon an intervention framework a care approach or something else This book disregards the idea that Saunders phrase has one coherent meaning and instead explores the multiple interpretations now current in contemporary professional discourse Using close reading of Saunders extensive publications as well as archival evidence and Saunders own personal library it situates the current usage of total pain in wider histories of clinical holism questions its similarity to later ideas of narrative medicine and explores how it might express the ambiguities of bearing witness to pain and vulnerability when someone is dying
