Spider Women A Tapestry Of Creativity And Healing:

Spider Women Carol Rose, Joan Turner, 1999 Spider Women A Tapestry of Creativity and Healing weaves together the wisdom of Canadian writers artists therapists clients academics musicians educators and others It includes stories essays poetry original music art and photography by urban Canadian women from Victoria to St John s and rural women from Verigin Saskatchewan to Kelowna British Columbia In a variety of forms the contributors describe the ways they use their creativity to overcome adversity achieve empowerment and work toward developing a more just and caring society The personal and political aspects of women s lives are examined by women from diverse cultures classes and age groups The Therapist's Notebook Lorna L. Hecker, Sharon A. Deacon, 2013-02-01 When did you last have enough free time to carefully create develop and test a therapeutic concept or teaching method to improve the help you provide to your patients With The Therapist's Notebook a compilation of original ideas by practicing clinicians you can tap into the knowledge and experience of seasoned professionals to give your clients tangible field tested assignments that will represent their work and progress in therapy Appropriate for practicing marriage and family therapists psychologists social workers and other therapists of any professional affiliation who deal with children adolescents adults couples or families this dynamic handbook provides you with handouts and homework activities that are quick and easy and require little effort or experience to use The Therapist's Notebook is a valuable resource for both experienced and novice clinicians Established clinicians will know how to fit each chapter to a particular clientele while uninitiated clinicians or trainees will appreciate how the ready made materials help their clients and spur their own creativity in intervening You ll find therapeutic work becomes less stressful and more enjoyable as you learn about helping these populations deal with important issues Adults goal setting boundary issues life transitions communication problemsolving compulsivity feelings Couples trust infidelity leisure time communication conflict resolution sexuality enrichment Families rules punishment decisionmaking gender roles chores and responsibilities communication Children self esteem school problems social skills abuse discipline problems Adolescents peer pressure school issues communication involvement in therapy behavior Other resistant clients crisis counseling linking clients with social resources The Therapist's Notebook gives you a tangible useful product you can utilize with clients The book s compilation of homework handouts and activities that have been successfully applied to client populations is valuable not only for therapists daily use but also to illustrate creative clinically tested interventions to future counselors therapists social workers teachers school psychologists and special educators Particularly useful as an ancillary text in university courses in psychotherapy related fields the book s user friendly format will enliven practicum courses and ensure heightened student participation Women's Changing Landscapes Greta Hofmann Nemiroff, 1999 Grandmothers mothers and daughters speak to us of their personal lives their triumphs and achievements Encompassing three generations their histories give us a sampling of the rich diversity of women s life experiences in British Columbia Alberta Manitoba and Nunavut Ontario Quebec and Nova Scotia Introductions contextualize the stories and provide comprehensive overviews of the social economic political and feminist developments in the province or territory during the last century

Skeletons in the Closet Aysan Sev'er, Jan E. Trost, 2011-01-17 Family conflict has traditionally been studied by researchers who are at a safe intellectual distance from the families under their study In Skeletons in the Closet and in line with feminist research methodologies the hierarchical distance between researcher and subject is broken down All of the contributors to this volume are academics and all are closely related to the families they write about Skeletons in the Closet consists of ten essays about unresolved or unresolvable family conflicts The contributors start from the assumption that families whether legal marriage families common law marriage families single parent families multiple generation families same sex partnerships or adoptive families are cradles of intense emotion That intensity they argue may translate into conflict competition domination abuse exploitation or even hate This book explores those areas most likely to grip family members in unresolved interpersonal strife as well as the strategies people use to solve the issues and the shame and isolation that conflict brings in societies that normatively expect family life to be one of joy mutual sharing and caring This first hand narration of family conflict by social scholars has much to contribute to sociological studies of the family both methodologically and theoretically The introduction and conclusion place family conflict within sociological and social psychological theories and methods

Auto/biography in Canada Julie Rak, 2009-08-02 Auto biography in Canada Critical Directions widens the field of auto biography studies with its sophisticated multidisciplinary perspectives on the theory criticism and practice of self community and representation Rather than considering autobiography and biography as discrete genres with definable properties and rather than focusing on critical approaches the essays explore auto biography as a discourse about identity and representation in the context of numerous disciplinary shifts Auto biography in Canada looks at how life narratives are made in Canada Originating from literary studies history and social work the essays in this collection cover topics that range from queer Canadian autobiography autobiography and autism and newspaper death notices as biography to Canadian autobiography and the Holocaust Grey Owl and authenticity France Thoret and autofiction and a new reading of Stolen Life the collaborative text by Yvonne Johnson and Rudy Wiebe Julie Rak's useful big picture introduction traces the history of auto biography studies in Canada While the contributors chart disciplinary shifts taking place in auto biography studies their essays are also part of the ongoing scholarship that is remaking ways to understand Canada

A Heart of Wisdom Susan Berrin, 2014-09-13 Shows us how to understand and meet the challenges of our own process of aging and the aging of those we care about from a Jewish perspective from midlife through the elder years Over 40 contributors offer their insights and experiences through personal narrative text studies poems ceremonies and stories about aging retiring growing learning caring for elderly parents living and dying

Jewish Mysticism and the Spiritual Life Lawrence Fine, Eitan P. Fishbane, Or N. Rose, 2011 In this thoughtful and lucid exploration of the Jewish mystical tradition leading scholars and teachers come together to share their favorite texts many available in English for the first time and explore why these materials are meaningful and relevant to contemporary life

Between Friends Helen Levine, Oonagh Berry, 2005-01-01 Longtime friends Helen Levine and Oonagh Berry decided they missed the tradition of real letters The obvious solution for them was to initiate a correspondence project Their goal To write each other a longhand letter every two weeks for a year and see what if anything they were missing in their usual friendship rituals of lunches visits and telephone chats The result is a wealth of insights yielded from over 150 years of combined life experience Week in and week out Helen and Oonagh weave together tales of family work politics motherhood aging and creativity Reading Between Friends is like sharing a warm pot of tea with two frank articulate and experienced companions

Voicework in Music Therapy Felicity Baker, Sylka Uhlig, 2011 An anthology of voicework techniques It explores the information the practitioner needs to know in order to bring about successful interventions across a range of client groups It is suitable for music therapy students or practitioners looking to explore the use of voicework in music therapy
