Brummel, 2014-03-25 My storey is about my life I was born in 1939 and my family literally broke apart when I was little I do not recall ever living in a home with my mother and father together There were several years I spent in foster care and then living with Mom and then Dad bouncing back and forth a couple of times until I was a junior in high school My father moved but I didn t I spent my final year in high school living with a local family thanks to a basketball coach who took special interest in me I spent some of my time growing up being a juvenile delinquent petty theft shop lifting drinking smoking and other such irresponsible activities I made a decision to change my life after my freshman year in high school and went to live with my father whom I already knew was a strict disciplinarian and a very controlling individual But I got the chance to start my life over again at age 15 I made the most of my new start and I want to tell my story An African Pentecostal

Hermeneutics Marius Nel, 2018-12-27 The face of African Christianity is becoming Pentecostal African Pentecostalism is a diverse movement but its collective interest in baptism in the Spirit and the result of Pentecost in daily living binds it together Pentecostals read the Bible with the expectation that the Spirit who inspired the authors will again inspire them to hear it as God's word They emphasize the experiential at times at the cost of proper doctrine and practice This book sketches an African hermeneutic that provides guidance to a diverse movement with many faces and serves as corrective for doctrine and practice in the face of some excesses and abuses especially in some parts of the neo Pentecostal movement African Pentecostalism's contribution to the hermeneutical debate is described before three points are discussed that define it the centrality of the Holy Spirit in reading the Bible the eschatological lens that Pentecostals use when they read the Bible and the faith community as normative for the interpretation of the Bible The Zondervan 2023 Pastor's Annual T. Guidance John A. Jillions, 2020-01-24 The twenty first century opened with the religiously inspired attacks of 9/11 and in the years since such attacks have become all too common Over against the minority who carry out violence at God's direction however there are millions of believers around the world who live lives of anonymous kindness They also see their actions as guided by the divine How is divine guidance to be understood against the background of such diametrically opposed results How to make sense of both Osama bin Laden and Mother Teresa In order to answer this question John A Jillions turns to the first century world of Corinth where Jews Gentiles and early Christians intermixed and vigorously debated the question of divine guidance In this ancient melting pot the ideas of writers and poets philosophers rabbis prophets and the apostle Paul confronted and complemented each other These writers reveal a culture that reflected deeply upon the realities ambiguities and snares posed by questions of divine guidance Jillions draws these insights together to offer an outline for the twenty first century and suggest criteria for how to assess perceived divine guidance Jillions opens a long closed window in the history of ideas in order to shed valuable light on this timeless question The Eldership and the God-Ordained Way Witness Lee,1985-12 Federalism and the Westminster Tradition Mark W. Karlberg,2006-10-15 More than any other theological tradition Reformed federalism has recognized the importance of the biblical teaching on the covenants in its system of doctrine This tradition came to mature confessional status in the writing of the Westminster Confession of Faith and Catechisms The place of the Westminster tradition within the stream of Christian history and theology is remarkable indeed Westminster not only gained recognition as the epitome of Calvinist teaching at the close of the Protestant Reformation the middle of the seventeenth century it also earned the reputation for precision and comprehensiveness in doctrinal formulation It became the measure by which biblical interpreters defended their systems of doctrine either in agreement or disagreement with the theology of the Westminster divines These writings are the climax of three decades of research and study and they appear as the third in the series of collections published by Wipf and Stock beginning with Covenant Theology in Reformed Perspective followed by Gospel Grace The Modern day Controversy The critical teaching in dispute in each of these studies is the classic Protestant antithesis between the Law and the Gospel what serves as the basis for the Reformed doctrine of the twofold covenants the Covenant of Works and the Covenant of Grace Protestant Reformed Orthodoxy now stands at the crossroads the plight of Westminster Seminary East and West is merely illustrative of the depth and the intensity of the contemporary theological dispute one impacting the future of Protestant evangelicalism as a whole The battle is between historic Reformed Protestantism and modern day revisionism of a radical sort The rapid rise of postmodernism or nonfoundationalism is indicative of the rapidly changing mood and posture in evangelical biblical scholarship at the opening of this third millennium of Christian interpretation Without question the modern church continues to loose her biblical moorings Forsaking the basic theological convictions of the Protestant Reformation it has attempted to subject the Word of God to vigorous academic i e scientific investigation the return of rationalism In doing so it has abandoned the Scripture principle which recognizes the uniquely authoritative and inerrant character of the Word of God Lost in the shuffle is the uncompromising proclamation of the one true Gospel the Gospel of justification by grace through faith alone Lost also is the doctrine of the perspicuity of Scripture Nothing less than a new Reformation in our day will halt travel down the road leading to destruction From the Preface Weaving a Spiritual Life Ann Marie Bezayiff,2011-11 Just as a weaver works the yarn and creates the fabric so too are we uniquely woven pieces of art produced from the breath of God Each thread of our humanity is set in his image Unlike the human weaver God's calculations are perfect There are no mistakes oversights or uneven salvages We are precious and loved because he has formed us In her inspirational weekly devotional author Ann Marie Bezayiff continues to share her spiritual journey but his time with her loom and yarn Her insights of faith in everyday life are like the creative process and skill of hand weaving Drawing upon her experiences as a writer of words a life long teacher and weaver of cloth her stories are reminiscent of our own personal walk with Christ in our busy complicated lives As we work the yarns of life and weave together our experiences and understandings her insights remind us that no matter the shape texture or design we create each of us is uniquely woven by the hand of God Ann Marie uses fifty two funny and inspirational life stories to illustrate that Weaving a Spiritual Life is a step by step process whose finished result is worth the wait Restoring the First-century Church in the Twenty-first Century Warren Lewis,Hans Rollmann,2005-10-15 Restoring the First century Church in the Twenty first Century Essays on the Stone Campbell Restoration Movement in Honor of Don Haymes is a snap shot of a major American religious movement just after the turn of the millennium When the Disciples of Alexander Campbell and the Christians of Barton Warren Stone joined forces early in the 19th century the first indigenous ecumenical movement in the United States came into being Two hundred years later this American experiment in biblical primitivism has resulted in three possibly four large segments Best known is the Christian Church Disciples of Christ active wherever ecumenical Christians gather The denomination is typically theologically open having been reshaped by theological Liberalism and the Social Gospel in the twentieth century and has been re organized on the model of other Protestant bodies The largest group the Churches of Christ easily distinguished by their insistence on a cappella music singing only is theologically conservative now tending towards the evangelical and congregationally autonomous though with a denominational sense of brotherhood The Christian Churches Churches of Christ Independent are a via media between the two other bodies theologically conservative and evangelical congregationally autonomous pastorally oriented and comfortable with instrumental music The fourth numerically significant group the churches of Christ Anti Institutional is a conservative reaction to the a cappella churches much in the way that the Southern a capella churches reacted against the emerging intellectual culture and social location instrumental music and institutional centrism of the Northern Disciples following the Civil War Besides these four numerous smaller fragments typically one article splinter groups decorate the history of the Restoration Movement One Cup brethren Premillennialists No Sunday School congregations No Located Preacher churches and others This movement to unite Christians on the basis of faith and immersion in Jesus Christ and to restore New Testament Christianity is too little recognized on the American religious landscape and it has been too little studied by the academic community This volume is focused primarily on the a cappella churches and their interests but implications for the entire Stone Campbell Restoration Movement abound The voices that speak freely within were unimpeded in authoring these essays by standards of orthodoxy imposed from without All of the contributors are acquainted with Don Haymes the honoree of the volume and have been inspired by this friend and colleague a man with a rigorous and earthy intellect and a heavenly spirit David Bundy series editor Studies in the History and Culture of World Christianities

Give Us This Day Devotionals, Volume 5 Charles Erlandson, 2023-01-31 Give Us This Day is a unique daily devotional commentary for the entire New Testament based on the ancient method called lectio divina Lectio divina or divine reading is the method used by the early church and countless Christians through the centuries to read the Scriptures to form and transform the soul more than merely to inform the mind Give Us This Day deals in depth with entire passages and their contexts Rather than selecting only certain portions of the New Testament to write about Fr Charles has written a devotional for each and every passage of the New Testament Fr Charles writes for the whole person he is not afraid to use his sense of humor and he carefully relates the Bible not only to the individual's life but also to the life of the Church At the end of each day's devotional an appropriate Prayer is offered as well as Points for Further Reflection on the day's lesson Each devotional concludes with a suggested Resolution to put into effect what the Spirit has stirred up in the heart of the reader during the course of his reading meditation and prayer The Congregationalist, 1920 The Bible Exposition Commentary
