particularly interested in the Northwest Coast cultures and art and authored important books including Arts of the Raven Masterworks by the Northwest Coast Indian and Images Stone B C Thirty Centuries of Northwest Coast Indian Sculpture. Hundreds of students left his classes with a greater understanding of Indigenous cultures and the consequences of settler colonialism in British Columbia. He devoted his life to understanding Indigenous people and cultures and communicating that understanding to newcomers, a subject of continued relevance today. Duff struggled with depression for much of his life and died by suicide at age 51. In the end, he claimed he did not fear death because the end is the beginning. He believed in reincarnation that he would be coming back. In tracing the story of Wilson Duff, biographer Robin Fisher reveals the evolution of anthropological studies, the history of a time and place Vancouver during the Great Depression and war years, and the more recent changes taking place in museum and anthropology studies. Told with insight and attention to the controversies and complexities of Duff's life, this story will fascinate anyone engaged in BC history.

Wind Song Rita Karnopp, 2008. In 1855 the Great Spirit sends Leota, a psychic Blackfoot woman, on a mission to convince Chief Lame Bull not to sign a treaty. If she fails, the white man's government will steal all that belongs to the Blackfoot Nation. Lawyer Marsh Pepperhorn comes west to join his family and finds them murdered except for his mouthy nephew Tanner, who's bent on revenge. Chasing the killers into the Mountains of the Bear's Paw, Montana Territory, their paths cross Leota's. Although Marsh and Leota distrust each other on sight, they work together to save an injured Tanner's life. As they face hardships and challenges, an unlikely romance blossoms between them. When traders abduct Leota, Marsh must track them down and bring the men to justice or lose the woman he loves. A sweeping tale of a changing culture, survival, discovery, adventure, and romance, Wind Song has it all.

TONGUES VOLUME 1: CONFUSED BY ECSTASY David A Swincer, 2013-12-21. The focus of this study is upon ecstasy as the confusing antecedent of Corinthian glossolalia. Most commentators accept ecstasy as the most significant characteristic of the Corinthian Christian glossolalic phenomenon. This assumption is questioned in this research because it needs to be clarified. It is contended that ecstasy is the confusing element because it was characteristic of the contemporary Corinthian mystery religious practice and that that background was carried into the Corinthian church, thus colouring Paul's treatment of the subject. It is not to be seen as an essential element of glossolalia. Most commentators agree that the glossolalic phenomenon in the Acts is different from that at Corinth. What then is a valid charismatic glossolalia? It is contended that the Acts draws attention to the only authentic cases and they are three of glossolalia in the Bible. The book of First Corinthians gives a corrective to an abuse with no clear authentication of a gift. Paul gives guidelines necessitated by the background of religious ecstasy. Hence, instead of proposing ground rules for a valid spiritual expression, it becomes apparent that First Corinthians is giving a restrained corrective against an abuse of contemporary culture that masqueraded as an authentic Christian experience. It is ecstasy that is the confusing element to this picture. It should be added that the Acts experiences speak of valid one-stage linguistic phenomena whilst the gift to the church in 1 Corinthians is clearly a two stage phenomenon Bergsma reflecting on the repetitious and almost daily insignificant sic revelations of modern glossolalists believes that they are misguided or presumptuous It is like the Himalayan Mountain in obstetrical labour and producing a mouse The preoccupation and emphasis is out of all proportion to the minimal benefits derived and indeed the mischief it generates The overall significance of the study is to provide a basis for authenticating a valid glossolalic expression and all this comes from the foundation of the test case in Corinth which in turn is dependent upon an understanding of ecstasy in the antecedent Mystery Religions of Corinthian contemporary society Dr Clifford Wilson himself a prolific author urged Whatever else happens you must publish the historic material there are very few people who have any idea of the true background of glossolalia within their denominations Multiculturalism and the Foundations of Meaningful Life Andrew M. Robinson,2011-01-01 Theories of liberal multiculturalism seek to reconcile cultural rights with universal liberal principles Some focus on individual autonomy others emphasize communal identity Andrew Robinson argues that liberal multiculturalism can be justified without privileging either By appealing to the deeper value of meaningful life he shows how autonomy and community are actually interdependent He concludes by illustrating with reference to national and ethnic minorities indigenous peoples and traditional communities the policy principles that can be derived from this position An innovative account of the theory and practice of liberal multiculturalism Multiculturalism and the Foundations of Meaningful Life will interest students scholars activists and policy makers working in areas of political theory multiculturalism indigenous peoples and ethnic and religious minorities Native American Religious Traditions Suzanne Crawford O'Brien,2015-08-27 Focusing on three diverse indigenous traditions Native American Religious Traditions highlights the distinct oral traditions and ceremonial practices the impact of colonialism on religious life and the ways in which indigenous communities of North America have responded and continue to respond to colonialism and Euroamerican cultural hegemony Jay Pather, Performance, and Spatial Politics in South Africa Ketu H. Katrak,2021-03-02 Jay Pather Performance and Spatial Politics in South Africa offers the first full length monograph on the award winning choreographer theater director curator and creative artist in contemporary global performance Working within the contexts of African studies dance theater and performance Ketu H Katrak explores the extent of Pather's productive career but also places him and his work in the South African and global arts scene where he is considered a visionary Pather a South African of Indian heritage is known as a master of space site and location Katrak examines how Pather's performance practices place him in the center of global trends that are interdisciplinary multidisciplinary collaborative and multimedia and that cross borders between dance theater visual art and technology Jay Pather Performance and Spatial Politics in South Africa offers a vision of an artist who is strategically aware of the spatiality of human life who understands the human body as the nation's collective history and who is a symbol of hope and resilience after the trauma of violent segregation
