Spirits of Just Men Charles D. Thompson Jr.,2011-04-20 Spirits of Just Men tells the story of moonshine in 1930s America as seen through the remarkable location of Franklin County Virginia a place that many still refer to as the moonshine capital of the world Charles D Thompson Jr chronicles the Great Moonshine Conspiracy Trial of 1935 which made national news and exposed the far reaching and pervasive tendrils of Appalachia s local moonshine economy Thompson whose ancestors were involved in the area s moonshine trade and trial as well as local law enforcement uses the event as a stepping off point to explore Blue Ridge Mountain culture economy and political engagement in the 1930s Drawing from extensive oral histories and local archival material he illustrates how the moonshine trade was a rational and savvy choice for struggling farmers and community members during the Great Depression Local characters come alive through this richly colorful narrative including the stories of Miss Ora Harrison a key witness for the defense and an Episcopalian missionary to the region and Elder Goode Hash an itinerant Primitive Baptist preacher and juror in a related murder trial Considering the complex interactions of religion economics local history Appalachian culture and immigration Thompson s sensitive analysis examines the people and processes involved in turning a basic agricultural commodity into such a sought after and essentially American spirit

Cult Religion He and four sisters labored to comply with cult demands consistent with their mother's mantra People expect preacher's kids to be perfect The Voice of Truth bestowed on Jasper as a child in a genuine salvation encounter with Jesus Christ conflicts with voices of deception from pulpits and pews triggering crippling anxiety depression and suicidal ideation Further compounding his confusion is a terrifying awareness of the cult's distortion of scripture concerning his innate identity When a Connecticut preacher detects his private struggle the Bible scholar promises If you marry a good Pentecostal girl this thing will just fade away Jasper foolishly accepts the challenge believing that the pastor's counsel is based on Truth A 32 year battle ensues during which a Pentecostal preacher's daughter who aware of his struggle and trained in Exploitation of Advantage manipulates and controls the miserable husband who strives to suppress and conceal an innate identity which simply won't leave me alone Cultists despise his genuine relationship with God when the Holy Spirit weakens the tenacious grasp of the antiChrist's claim on his soul rescuing him from abominable doctrines through Spiritual Enlightenment to Truth Absolute Spiritual Warfare ensues during which he is molested by authority figures betrayed by cult dishonesty falls into sin is attacked by demons and is delivered by the Holy Ghost through visions of spiritual combat between the demons of Cult Religion and the Angels of Truth In the end his foolish attempt to conform with the Doctrine of Good Enough predictably results in the destruction of everything he wasted a lifetime building marriage family home career material wealth and reputation Yet in losing all he is delivered from the Darkness of cult idolatry whereupon he is finally free to immerse himself in genuine Truth Light and Love breaking the tyrannical chains of Cult Religion Released by the Holy Spirit from cult bondage he is at last unleashed to fulfill his destiny To teach the Truth about Jasper Love that boundless unconditional love known only to those who genuinely experience Spiritual Enlightenment to a people deceived by the hateful harlots of idolatry who are nothing more than power crazed authoritarian self aggrandizing despotic antiChrist heretics who worship only one god CONTROL     The Bookseller, 1901 Vols for 1871 76 1913 14 include an extra number The Christmas bookseller separately paged and not included in the consecutive numbering of the regular series     Henry Miller and

Narrative Form James Decker, 2006-06-01 In this bold study James M Decker argues against the commonly held opinion that Henry Miller's narratives suffer from formlessness He instead positions Miller as a stylistic pioneer whose place must be assured in the American literary canon From Moloch to Nexus through such widely read texts as Tropic of Cancer and Tropic of Capricorn Decker examines what Miller calls his spiral form a radically digressive style that shifts wildly between realism and the fantastic Drawing on a variety of narratological and critical sources as well as Miller's own aesthetic theories he highlights that this fragmented narrative style formed part of a sustained critique of modern spiritual decay A deliberate move rather than a compositional weakness then Miller's style finds a wide variety of antecedents in the work of such figures as Nietzsche Rabelais Joyce Bergson and Whitman and is viewed by Decker as an attempt to chart the journey of the self through the modern city Henry Miller and Narrative Form affords readers new insights into some of the most challenging writings of the twentieth century and provides a template for understanding the significance of an extraordinary and inventive narrative form

The Hundred Years War (Part III), 2013-07-25 In this work the third volume of essays dealing with many understudied aspects of the Hundred Years War American British and European scholars deal with the varied sources that reveal the lives of soldiers in the conflict as well as the development of strategy and generalship in the many theaters of the war The authors also focus on real heroes and villains of the conflict as well as the war's impact on regions as scattered as Wales the Low Countries Italy Scotland and Spain Contributors are Adrian Bell Anne Curry Adam Chapman Andy King David Simpkin Christopher Candy Donald Kagay William Caferro David Hoonstra Elena Odio Daniel Franke David Green Philip Morgan Sean McGlynn Wendy Turner Andrew Villalon Aleksandra Pfau Kelly DeVries and Sergio Boffa Winner of the 2014 Verbruggen Prize of De Re Militari the Society for the Study of Medieval Military History given annually for the best book on medieval military history

Prophecy in the New Millennium Suzanne Newcombe, Sarah Harvey, 2016-04-15 Secular and spiritual prophets of doom abound in the information rich twenty first century as they have for millennia But there has yet to be worldwide floods meteor impact global computer failure obvious alien contact or direct intervention from God to end the world as we know it Considering the frequency with which prophecy apparently fails why do prophecies continue to be made and what social functions do they serve This volume gives a concise but comprehensive overview of the rich diversity of prophecy its role in major world religions as well as in new religions and alternative spiritualities its social dynamics and its impact on individuals lives Academic analyses are complimented with contextualized primary source testimonies of those who live and have lived within a prophetic framework The book argues that the key to understanding the more dramatic apocalyptic and millenarian aspects of prophecy is in appreciating prophecy's more mundane manifestations and its role in providing meaning and motivation in everyday life

The African American Religious Experience in America Anthony B. Pinn, 2005-11-30 Most who think about African American religion limit themselves to black churches or perhaps to aspects of Islamic thought and practice But a close look at the religious landscape of African American communities presents a much more complex thick and layered religious reality comprising many competing faiths and practices The African American Religious Experience in America provides readers with an introduction to the tremendous religious diversity of African American communities in the United States with snapshots of 11 religious traditions practiced by African Americans from Buddhism to Catholicism from Judaism to Voodoo Each snapshot provides readers a better understanding of how African Americans practice their faiths in the United States The African American Religious Experience in America provides resources for students taking classes on the history of American religion African American Studies and on American Studies In addition to the in depth discussion of the varieties of African American Religion the volume includes a historical introduction to the development of African American Religion a glossary of terms a timeline of important events a series of short biographies of important figures in the history of African American religion and a bibliography of sources for further study Finally the book includes a series of primary source documents that will provide students with first person accounts of how religion is practiced in the African American community both today and in the past Billboard ,2005-04-23 In its 114th year Billboard remains the world s premier weekly music publication and a diverse digital events brand content and data licensing platform Billboard publishes the most trusted charts and offers unrivaled reporting about the latest music video gaming media digital and mobile entertainment issues and trends Studies on Iran and The Caucasus Uwe Bläsing,Victoria Arakelova,Matthias Weinreich,2015-07-14 This unique collection of essays by leading international scholars gives a profound introduction into the great diversity and richness of facets forming the study of one of earth s most exciting areas the Iranian and Caucasian lands Each of the 37 contributions sheds light on a very special topic the range of which comprises historical cultural ethnographical religious political and last but not least literary and linguistic issues beginning from the late antiquity up to current times Especially during the last decennia these two regions gained greater interest worldwide due to several developments in politics and culture This fact grants the book intended as a festschrift for Prof Garnik Asatrian a special relevance Contributors Victoria Arakelova Marco Bais Uwe Bläsing Vahe S Boyajian Claudia A Ciancaglini Johnny Cheung Viacheslav A Chirikba Matteo Compareti Caspar ten Dam Desmond Durkin Meisterernst Kaveh Farrokh Aldo Ferrari Ela Filippone Khachik Gevorgian Jost Gippert Nagihan Haliloğlu Elif Kanca Pascal Kluge Anna Krasnowolska Vladimir Livshits Hirotake Maeda Irina Morozova Irina Natchkebia Peter Nicolaus Antonio Panaino Mikhail Pelevin Adriano V Rossi James R Russell Dan Shapira Wolfgang Schulze Martin Schwarz Roman Smbatian Donald Stilo Akar Ceyhan Suvari Giusto Traina Garry Trompf Matthias Weinreich Eberhardt Werner and Boghos Zekian The Womanist Reader Layli Phillips,2006-09-19 Comprehensive in its coverage The Womanist Reader is the first volume to anthologize the major works of womanist scholarship Charting the course of womanist theory from its genesis as Alice Walker s African American feminism through Chikwenye Okonjo Ogunyemi s African womanism and Clenora Hudson Weems Africana womanism to its present day expression as a global anti oppressionist perspective rooted in the praxis of everyday women of color this interdisciplinary reader traces the rich and diverse history of a quarter century of womanist thought Featuring selections from over a dozen disciplines by top womanist scholars from around the world plus several critiques of womanism an extensive bibliography of womanist sources and the first ever systematic treatment of womanist thought on its own terms Layli Phillips has assembled a unique and groundbreaking compilation Ebony ,2005-09 EBONY is the flagship magazine of Johnson Publishing Founded in 1945 by John H Johnson it still maintains the highest global circulation of any African American focused magazine Globalizing Cricket Dominic Malcolm,2012-12-06 This book is available as open access through the Bloomsbury Open Access programme and is available on www.bloomsburycollections.com Globalizing Cricket examines the global role of the sport how it developed and spread around the world The book explores the origins of cricket in the eighteenth century its establishment as England s national game in the nineteenth the successful Caribbean and unsuccessful American diffusion of cricket as part of the development of the British Empire and its role in structuring contemporary identities amongst and between the English the British and postcolonial communities Whilst empirically focused on the sport itself the book addresses broader issues such as social development imperialism race diaspora and national identities Tracing the beginnings of cricket as a folk game through to the present it draws together these different strands to examine the meaning and social significance of the modern game This book is a must read for anyone interested in the role of sport in both colonial and post colonial periods the history and peculiarities of English national identity or simply intrigued by the game and its history
